

The Charlotte JEWISH NEWS

Vol. 4 No. 10

Charlotte, North Carolina

November, 1982

Women's Division Launch '83 Campaign

Bel Kaufman at 1½ years on Sholom Aleichem's lap.

Women's Division of the Charlotte Jewish Federation will launch their 1983 campaign with an elegant evening celebrating Judaic art in its richly varied forms.

On Sunday evening, November 21, at 8 p.m., at the home of Sandra and Leon Levine, acclaimed author, lecturer and granddaughter of Sholom Aleichem, Bel Kaufman will be the featured guest speaker. Other highlights of the evening's program will include a performance by Alice and Eugene Kavaddo, musicians with the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra, and a local collection of Jewish art with commentary by Stuart Schwartz, Curator of the Mint Museum of History.

A celebrity in her own right, Bel Kaufman is the best-selling author of Up the Down Staircase which has sold more than 6 million copies and has been translated into 16 languages. Ms. Kaufman also wrote the novel Love, Etc. She has published numerous short stories and articles in national magazines such as Sat-

(Continued on Page 6)

UJA Fly-In

Annette Dulzin

Annette Dulzin, Israeli columnist, will be in Charlotte on November 8 to meet with Federation women and discuss the current issues and fund raising as part of a National UJA FLY-IN Campaign. This unique program has been developed in response to the urgent needs in Israel for funds to alleviate human suffering at a time when the economy is being drained by the Lebanon events.

Mrs. Dulzin was in Charlotte last December

(Continued on Page 6)

Foundation Drive Reaches $3,450,500.00

As a result of an outstanding effort by 32 dedicated workers, the Campaign has surged past $3.4 million. "The people are waiting for us to call on them, and that is just what we are doing," said Harry Swimmer. He emphasized the need for each and every member of the community to stand up and be counted by making a pledge and placing their name on a brick.

At a meeting held at Swimmer's home workers accepted assignments totaling more than 175 families and individuals. In the days that followed they fanned out through the community to contact people to obtain commitments. "It takes hard work and long hours to make sure that everyone is given their own personal opportunity to participate," Harry said. "These workers have made a promise to the Project, to the community, me and to themselves that they will not stop until everyone has been reached and we are at $5.1 million, and I know they will keep that promise." Those working on the campaign are: Bob Abel, Marvin Bienstock, Sandy Benjamin, Don Bernstein, Mark Bernstein, Mel Berzack, Alan Blumenthal, Herman Blumenthal, Hy Bruck, Furman Clark, Paul Edelstein, Meg Goldstein, Shel Goldstein, Allen Gordon, Stan Greenspon, Stan Grey, Harold Josephson, Barry Kaye, Harry Lerner, Sam Lerner, Miles Levine, Hal Levinson, Ed Newman, Floyd Patten, Sandy Rose, Hugo Rosenberger, Larry Segal, Morris Speizman, David Swimmer, Allen Waga, Saul Wojnowich and Harry Swimmer.

In a late development, the Foundation announced the hiring of Sara (Mrs. Michael) Schreiber as Administrative Assistant to the Foundation. Mrs. Schreiber comes to the position after 5 years of work with the Jewish Community Center. During those five years she has directed both children's and most recently, adult programs. Prior to coming to Charlotte, Mrs. Schreiber was co-director of a Hebrew Day School and had a number of years of direct business experience.

Sara Schreiber

Sara grew up in Montgomery, Alabama. She received her Bachelor of Science in Education degree with a major in Math from the University of Georgia. She is married to Michael Schreiber, and has two sons, Mark and Philip.

Mrs. Schreiber will
(Continued on Page 13)

Monte Carlo Night To Benefit Project

On November 20 the Charlotte Lodge of B'nai B'rith will be holding its second annual Monte Carlo Night. This promises to be an even bigger, better and more enjoyable evening than it had last year. There are so many very good door prizes to offer and so many of the larger prizes will simply be unbelievable.

This project is especially significant to the Lodge this year in that the funds raised from this project will go toward helping the Lodge meet their pledge to The Foundation. The Lodge feels that as part of its community commitment the support of The Foundation is very crucial to the community and that it is the Lodge's responsibility to the community to help support The Foundation with its goals.

You will find a coupon in the paper that will entitle you to an additional $100 in chips when presented to the cashier at the door.

The Lodge invites all members of the community to this gala evening to help support The Foundation and the Charlotte B'nai B'rith Lodge. Please come out and enjoy yourself and help the Lodge support the biggest project ever undertaken by the Charlotte Jewish Community.

MEGAMA

November 30

Spirit Square
Adults: $7.00

8:00 p.m.
Children: $5.00

Tickets are available at the JCC, the three temples and the Hebrew Academy.

In The News

Together We Will...

P. 16

Israel Bonds Honor Morris Speizman.....	p.5
Academy News	p. 4
Bar/Bat Mitzvahs	p. 14
Book Review	p. 13
Bulletin Board.....	p. 10
Calendar	p. 14
Classified	p. 15
Editorials	p. 2
Israel Mission	p.3
Focus on Israel	p. 3
For the Record.....	p. 4
JCC.....	p. 8-9
Lubavitcher Rebbe	p. 4
Recipes	p. 11
This 'n That	p. 7
World Beat	p. 5