ORT

Women's American ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation through Training) will hold their January Open Meeting on the 18th at Belks SouthPark store. The program will be held in their Meeting Room and will begin at 7:00 pm (a half hour earlier than usual). The topic of the program will be "Updating Your Wardrobe" and will feature tips on achieving that just-right look by the use of fashions and accessories. Wine and cheese will be served with this exciting program, so make plans now to attend and bring a friend along too. If the dreary winter weather has been keeping you away from activities, this is an excellent opportunity to renew old friendships and perk up your wardrobe as well.

The ORT District meeting will be held January 24 and 25 in Miami, and several of the officers and other members are making plans to attend. We look forward to their report at the February meeting since they're sure to return with many new and interesting ideas obtained from talking with members from other Chapters-at-Large in our District.

Our next special project will be a Lox Box Sale to be held on February 12th. This has always been a successful fundraiser for us, and we need everyone's cooperation this year again. The co-chairmen are Sue Ett and Roberta Malickson and they'll be asking for your help in soliciting orders and for drivers to make the deliveries. Please volunteer since this has always been a fun project, and don't forget to place your own order! The Lox Boxes will be priced at $8.75 again this year, and will contain 6 bagels, 1/4 lb. lox, 1/4 lb. cream cheese, tomato, and dessert. It will make a perfect Valentine's gift to be delivered to your door on Sunday morning. See next month's article for specific ordering information.

Future activities include the February Open Meeting on Education, and the March Open Meeting at the Charlotte Russe. Special projects coming up are Circus Day, the Older Adult Luncheon, and a trip to the Ballet. Watch your monthly bulletin for more details on these and other events.

ORT has given new life through education to hundreds of thousands of people around the world. We must make our actions worthy of our aspirations so that together we help build a better world filled with brighter tomorrows for all people.

Basketball Program Begins

The JCC and Temple Israel are again co-sponsoring four basketball teams in the Saint Patrick's Basketball League. The Midget Team consists of players in the 3rd, 4th and 5th grade and is coached by Bob Hawkins, assisted by Jean Roderiguez (former coach of Mooreville High School Girls State Championship Team). The J.V. Team of 5th, 6th, and 7th graders is coached by Marty Schner, and Phil Guller. The Varsity Team of 7th and 8th graders is coached by Billy Ashendorf and the High School Team is coached by Mike Van Glish.

All teams practice on Thursday nights with games on Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoons. The 10 game League schedule began on December 10. Over 40 youngsters from the JCC and Temple Israel are involved in the program.

Temple Israel Daily School

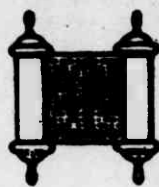

The month of December was a festive one. Our two, three and four-year-old children learned about the wonderful holiday of Chanukah, making all sorts of delightful crafts to bring home and put up on the refrigerator.

The highlight of the month was a Chanukah play put on by the four-year-old classes. Parents of the four's were invited to attend and every seat in the house was occupied. After the play, delicious potato latkes were served and enjoyed by all.
