Super Sunday

their Super Sunday pledge. Super Sunday was actually the completion of a weekend of 1984 Campaign activity. On Saturday evening 25 health professionals, including doctors, dentists, psychiatrists and pharmacists, and their escorts met to hear Israeli lawyer Akivah Baum discuss the current situation in Israel and other world Jewish communities. The event lasted until long after midnight with an extensive discussion between those present and Mr. Baum. Pledges from those attending reflected an increase of 50%.

Those who convened that evening were Drs. Sandy Benjamin, Jonathon Bregman, Trevor Goldberg, Paul Putterman and Jared Schwartz.

On Super Sunday morning, Mr. Baum met and spoke with a dozen Charlotte Jewish lawyers. He shared his experiences and ideas over brunch at the Coliseum Ramada. Several of those present became Super Sunday volunteers later in the day. Conveners for the brunch were Marshall Karro, Miles Levine and Jon Wallas.

USY

Temple Israel's USY chapter held their Fall Sub-Regional convention in Charlotte on November 11-13. Convention Cochairpeople Audrey Jankowitz and Laurie Goldman put together a weekend that was extremely fun for all. "Everyone who was here for the weekend had an excellent time, made many new friends, and delved into their own Jewish identity." Over 100 USYers were in attendance. In December, under the direction of USY, Special Projects Committee, Kevin Levine, Louis Sinkoe and Jeff Shapiro once again assembled the giant 25 foot Chanukah Menorah that won national recognition as Outstanding Synagogue project. The Menorah remained standing throughout December.

USY History

In 1947, USY became a topic of conversation among Rabbis and laymen in Minneapolis. They conceived the idea of organizing a youth group affiliated with the Conservative Movement (United Synagogue of America). Though there was a youth organization already in existence, the YPL (Young People League), it was felt that it was not sufficiently centered in the United Synagogue. The first convention of USY while still on regional basis, took place in St. Paul, Minnesota, in 1948.

Regions were soon established. Connecticut and Southwest both formed affiliated Regions in 1950. USY movement quickly rose to a national level and in December 1951 there was an International Charter Convention at Columbia University and the Jewish Theological Seminary in N.Y., with over 500 delegates from 14 states and Canada. Officers were elected and the International board had begun. The movement had grown to a membership of 30,000 young people. To date USY has regions in Canada, Mexico and the U.S.A. along with a Chai Region in Israel that was established in 1968.

We are proud of our chapter which has made great strides in the past two years.

Shalom,
