

JCC Class Schedule

January 22 Kick-off Day For Classes

Adult Programs

1984 promises to be an exciting year at the JCC. In addition to a wide variety of new adult classes and instructors, we are introducing special events including cultural and fine arts programs and family life education seminars.

We are looking forward to expanded participation by the community as there are courses to suit most every taste. A few of our recent additions are a cross country ski trip, Israeli Dance lessons, a fashion program for men, and a family life seminar on child development.

Look the programs over and call me, Abby Hoffman, at 366-0357 if you have any questions, suggestions, or friends that might join us.

New Childrens Classes

I would like to take this time to say how happy I am to be part of the staff at the JCC and thank everyone for their support and well wishes.

We've put together a great line up for winter classes, so be sure to check the class schedule.

Some highlights are new pop-tot classes, mom-tot classes, kids COMPUTE!, drama, ballet, puppetry and sports.

We're also offering favorites such as Lunch Bunch and Preschool Potpourri.

We're anticipating a good class turn out and an exciting winter for all. Please call me, Dana Klein, at 366-0357 with any questions and suggestions.

Ballet Center of Charlotte

The Jewish Community Center is pleased to announce that Ballet Center of Charlotte, under the direction of Emilka Hulova, will be offering ballet classes to children and adults at all levels - beginning, intermediate, advanced and professional - for the spring semester starting the end of January.

Miss Hulova comes to this area from California where she cofounded the Mendocino School of Ballet, then became ballet mistress and artistic director of Evergreen Ballet Theatre. Most recently her associations in California have been with the San Francisco Ballet and the Marin Civic Ballet.

Having received her training in New York with the Metropolitan Opera Ballet School, Vilzak-Shollar, American Ballet Theatre School, and the School of American Ballet, she became soloist of the Metropolitan Opera Ballet in New York, choreographer and soloist of the Newark Opera House, and soloist with the Marquis de Cuevas Company in France. Other appearances include Radio City Music Hall, Broadway musicals and television. Her expertise and artistry have been called upon not only in this country, but in Europe, Canada and South America as well.

Besides teaching, Miss Hulova is also in demand for her choreography in ballet companies and in musicals, and her works have had great success from coast to coast.

Registration Information

This catalogue of activities presents information on programs for the period beginning January 1984. Kick-off date for classes Jan. 22 (meet the instructors and be entertained).

HOW TO REGISTER

1. Review these pages with your family and decide which activities you and your children wish to participate in.
2. Since registration begins immediately, complete and mail the form below, or bring it to the Center office, with the specified fee.
3. Registration must be accompanied by the FULL FEE and NO telephone registration will be accepted for fee activities, except by charging to your Master Card or Visa.
4. Classes begin as each is indicated.
5. Registration closes SEVEN DAYS PRIOR to the starting date of each class or when the maximum number of participants for each class is reached.
6. All adult classes are also open to high school students.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

All activities are scheduled on a minimum number of 8 participants, except where noted. We regret that should a class not register sufficient numbers, it will be cancelled and all fees will be refunded.

Because classes are based on a limited enrollment, activity fees are not refundable upon cancellation by a participant unless the place can be filled.

YOUR SUGGESTIONS ARE ENCOURAGED

The Center's activities are based upon the interests and concerns of our members. We hope to be flexible enough to change and expand services where physically and financially possible. Therefore, your suggestions and ideas are appreciated.

You are cordially invited to serve on any of the numerous or administrative committees of the Center, and to thereby assist in its growth and development.

COMPLAINTS & SUGGESTIONS

Our Center is only as good as our knowledge of the growing and changing needs of our members. We know that we make mistakes, and we want to correct them as quickly as possible. Please communicate your complaint to any member of the Center's program staff, Board of Directors, the Executive Director, or the President.

Chai

December was a brief but active month for the Chai Group. At Chanukah, Chai members cooked for, set up and served at the luncheon honoring Chai drivers. The social hall at Temple Beth El was draped with crepe paper and balloons. Rabbi Krantzler opened the program with the candle lighting, followed by Annie Goldberg's reciting of the hamotzi. The food was delicious—as usual Thelma Levy cooked latkes for the luncheon. Plaques were given to each of the drivers.

On the 12th Chai celebrated the December birthdays with a cake. The group said "until the spring quarter" to CPCC instructor Judy Tager who will take the winter off. RSVP (Retired Senior Volunteer Program) Director, Lisa Martinez, offered suggestions to Chai members for volunteer commitments in the Jewish and greater community.

"Yentl" was the special grand finale for a full autumn. Members and drivers lunched at Morrison and then went to see the Barbra Streisand film. Chai meets again January 9, the beginning of a new quarter.

COMPUTE!

The JCC welcomes a new area of instruction to our class repertoire. Computer classes for every age come our way with the computer learning agency, COMPUTE!

Adult COMPUTE! is a 10 hour class designed to teach participants how to operate the computer, write programs, and use existing programs (see adult classes for times).

Kid COMPUTE! COMPUTE!'s educational courses for children teach basic computer while the students have fun! All experience is hands-on using COMPUTE!'s own computers or the child's own home computer. The course is designed for 10 hour and ½ sessions giving 15 hours of high quality instructions.

Jan and Bill Thomas, the new owners of COMPUTE! promise exciting classes where much learning takes place. While only fourteen participants can be accommodated in each class, the JCC expects to have more computer classes in the future.

Camp Is Around The Corner

Camp's around the corner and we are all very excited about this years program.

The camp this year will be a nature, outdoors camp and we have many great activities planned. We plan to develop our program for the older age group to include specific sports skills and some outdoor and primitive camping skills. All age groups will concentrate on nature studies and the use of the environment.

Although the camp will be a nature camp we are, of course, making shelter provisions for weather considerations.

We will be holding early bird registration this year so anyone registering before April 1 will get a $10.00 discount per child, per session.

See the following schedule for session dates and fees:

	June 25 - July 20
	First Session	Second Session
Three year olds	$92M/$135NM	$70M/$105NM
Four year olds	$125M/$175NM	$95M/$135NM
K-1	$175M/$250NM	$135M/$190NM
2-6	$175M/$250NM	$135M/$190NM

Look for more detailed information and registration form in February's issue of the Charlotte Jewish News. Plan early, take advantage of earlybird registration and think camp!
