

Charlotte B'nai B'rith Women

Tape-A-Tale

Feb. 14, Valentine's Day, is the day Charlotte Chapter's Tape presentation will be made to Charlotte Memorial and Presbyterian Hospitals. Help is still needed to make tapes of stories, songs, poems, etc. for the children in these wards. Anyone wishing to assist in recording tapes should call Susan Coen at 366-9539. Cassette recorders and tapes will be provided.

Amblyopia Screening

Amblyopia, also known as "lazy eye," is a weakness of the eye. If it is not treated, it can lead to blindness in the eye.

Charlotte Chapter will be screening pre-school children for amblyopia. Volunteers are needed to help in the screening. A training session will be given. Please call Margie Liebstein, 541-1844 or Iline Goldfischer, 541-0899 for further information.

Arosa House

On Saturday, Feb. 18, Charlotte Chapter will be taking the children at Arosa House to the Lollipop Concert Series at Ovens Auditorium. The theme of this concert will be Outer Space. Anyone wishing to bring the children, please call Linda Binnick at 552-1435.

A new training session is about to begin: To work as a volunteer at Arosa House. Volunteers are needed to work one evening a week or on weekends. Arosa House is also in need of children's clothing

(all sizes), dish towels, pillow cases, blocks and outdoor toys. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer at the house or can donate any of the above, please call Linda Binnick.

Color Me Beautiful

Mark your calendars for our March 7 meeting which will feature Jo Pattishall, Color and Wardrobe Consultant. Ms. Pattishall will demonstrate and explain how to find "your season" and what colors suit you best. This will be a salad bar luncheon at Temple Beth El at which time we will also be honoring new members. Look for further details about this meeting soon.

ORT

Women's American ORT started the new year off with a bang. The January Open Meeting was held at Belk in SouthPark with a fantastic program on fashion ideas and grooming tips; wine and cheese were served. Special thanks go to Marci Mehlman, Program VP, for making the arrangements. The next Open Meeting will be held February 15 and will feature a program on education. For more information on time and location of the meeting, contact Marci at 542-2096.

The Special Project for February is our LOX BOX SALE. If you would like to help with driving and delivering the boxes on February 12, or would just like to place your personal order for a box or two, Call Roberta Malickson at 365-1417 or Sue Ett at 553-2637. Please encourage your friends and neighbors to order a box too, since this is one of our major fundraisers of the year. (See our ad elsewhere in this issue.)

ORT welcomes Lauri Reich to our Executive Board. She is a former member of the Greensboro ORT and is our new Bulletin chairman. All articles to the Bulletin need to be turned in to Lauri at the Open Meeting each month. Our appreciation to Shari Simon for the work she did on preparing the Bulletin for the last six months.

Our next special project is an ORT SABBATH scheduled for March 2 at Temple Israel. This is an annual event and a wonderful opportunity to promote ORT within our community. If you would like to help participate in the services or bake for Oneg Shabbat, please call our Education VP, Marcia Stern, at 563-2696. Please make plans to attend that night; we would like to show that ORT cares.

"To Life" Educates Public

TO LIFE serves a unique purpose: to educate the public about the relationship of grief and loss to life and living.

March 19-23, "1984 TO LIFE" will bring to Charlotte the sixth annual Living Till We Die Conference. This program has been described as an "innovative community project" in North Carolina and as an "outstanding program" in the United States. The conference offers a challenging, thought-provoking, caring environment in which to explore some of life's questions. This year's keynote speaker will be the author of the national best-seller "When Bad Things Happen To Good People," Rabbi Harold Kushner. Rabbi Kushner comes to us from Temple Israel in Nadick, Massachusetts.

The Conference also offers a number of educational and experiential workshops. Among those featured are: "The Best Is Yet To Be? - Aging In America 1984," "Developing A Personal Philosophy On Dying And Death," "Paths To Growth - A Sampler," and "Healing And The Spirit."

For more information, contact TO LIFE, P.O. Box 9354, Charlotte, N.C. 28299, or call (704) 332-LIFE.
