Chai

January was an eventful month for Chai, one filled with educational and entertainment programs. On Jan. 9 a new CPCC quarter began with rug-hooking as the main feature. The group is working on individual projects and a large collective work for the wall of the new Center. Artist Sue Alvarez is sketching the large project on canvas.

Other programs included a birthday cake for individuals with a birthday in January, a speaker from Southern Bell speaking on the AT&T break-up, and a theology lesson with Rabbi Richard Rocklin.

Bookkeeper Hired

The JCC is pleased to announce that Brenda Manes has accepted a part-time book-keeping position at the Center. Brenda received her B.S. in Accounting from Louisiana State University and last held a position as Accounting Manager of a medium-sized firm.

Brenda, her husband Irwin and their three boys have lived in Charlotte since April 1982. She has been active in the Jewish community including membership on the Board of B'nai B'rith Women Ha Lailah Chapter.
