

Ha Lailah BBW

Ha Lailah Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women will hold its first "Meet and Eat" Dinner Meeting on Tuesday, August 28 at 6:30 p.m. at the Armstrong House (921 Jefferson).

This promises to be an exciting evening open to the entire membership of Ha Lailah. It will serve as an opportunity for each and every member to become familiar with the upcoming year's programs and projects: CHILD FIND, LATCHKEY CHILD, PERSONAL GIVING, THE RELATIVES, CHILDREN'S LIBRARY, MINORITY CHILD WORKSHOP.

These are only a few of a variety of programs, special events and projects planned by Ha Lailah for the coming year. Board members and chairpersons of the various committees will be leading many of the discussions. Members will be sharing the excitement as these discussions and activities will open the doors to personal involvement.

A box dinner will be served at a cost of $4 per person. R.S.V.P. to Sara Schreiber (542-6594 or 366-5007) or Penny Eisenberg (366-0680) by August 24.

"Come Fly With Us"

This was the theme for Ha Lailah's membership tea which was held at the home of Wendy Rosen on June 12.

Prospective new members discussed projects and functions for the coming year with the Board and gained insight as to how they might become involved.

It being a beautiful Spring evening, the night's activities were held outside on the deck of Wendy's home. The setting lent itself to getting acquainted personally as well as with the Chapter. Ice cream and an array of toppings were served which added the finishing touches to an already pleasurable event.

For Mavens and Other Mothers

Nicki Levine and Jeanie Katz are organizing a new special interest group for members and potential members of Ha Lailah.

For "MOMS" is for women who are expecting or have had a baby within the past year. This program will offer to its participants the opportunity to learn helpful hints on handling special problems, sharing tips on child care and provide for adult company during a portion of the day. This will not be a mother's morning out as the children will attend and the program will be a "casual coffee klatch."

Come share ideas, thoughts, feelings and possibly concerns with someone who can definitely relate to a mother with a small child or a mother-to-be.

The group will meet the second Thursday of each month from 10-11:30 a.m. at different homes. For more information call Nicki (364-6498) or Jeanie (847-7669).

Pool Party

Our August meeting for Ha Lailah Chapter will be a pool party to be held on Sunday, August 12 from 2-4 p.m. at the home of Penny Eisenberg.

The special feature of the afternoon will be lessons, from not just one, but two bartenders, on exotic drinks. We will not only be shown how to make these drinks, but we will sample each and every one. (In case of rain, this meeting will be held indoors at Penny's home).

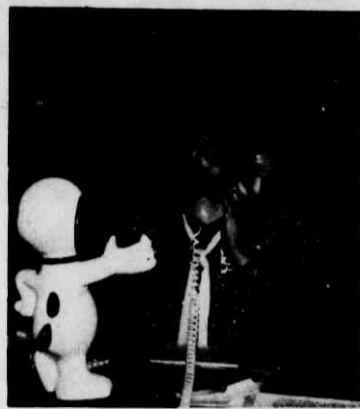

Come enjoy this bubbling afternoon at a minimal cost of $1.50 per person.

Accessory Fashion Show

Learn how to coordinate your closet, to update old fashions and highlight your new ones. Charlotte BBW in conjunction with BBG will be cohosting an Accessory Fashion Show sponsored by Monet Jewelry. The event will take place at Temple BethEl on August 29, 11:30 a.m. Models will be showing new fashion tricks during the Salad Bar Luncheon. There will be favors for everyone and drawings for door prizes all donated by Monet. All BBW and BBG members are welcome, as well as all teenage girls interested in BBG.

Service Projects

Two Community Volunteer Service (CVS) projects need your help and support.

Tape-A-Tale: If you're interested in helping to make tapes of children's stories or nursery rhymes to be donated to area hospitals, contact Susan Coen, 366-9539 or Beth Linderman, 542-9865. The tapes and recorders will be delivered to your home. All it takes is your imagination and interest.

Amblyopia (Lazy Eye) Screening will be held in Charlotte pre-schools this fall. A variety of help is needed and a job can be found for you. If you are interested contact Ilene Goldfisher, 541-1844.

Sick Loan Chest

The Sick Loan Chest has moved to 2730 Rozzells Ferry Rd. For information concerning this call Lillian Sutta, 821-9890 or Beth Linderman, 542-9865.

Conference Awards

Congratulations to the '83-'84 desk officers Reggie Wittlin, Nancy Kornhauser, Carol Waldman and Susan Coen, who received awards for jobs well done.

The Chapter was recognized for meeting its allocation by December 31, 1983 and for oversubscribing more than 5% of its allocation by March 15, 1984.

Other awards received were:

- First Place for "Arosa House" as the best on-going Community Volunteer Service (CVS) Project.

- First Place for our program, "Cults: The Tender Trap," as best individual program.

- Tie for First Place with Chermona Chapter for best over-all CVS projects for the year. Both Chapters' scrapbooks have been submitted as entries for the B'nai B'rith Sidney Kusworm award for best over-all CVS.

National recognition was received by our Chapter's bulletin, Women Alive; it was selected the best by Washington journalists. Congratulations for this goes to Helene Jankowitz and Meryle Elko.

An organization is only as good as the people that comprise it. Meryle Elko is an example of such a person. She was the winner of the National Public Relations Award.

Summer Activities

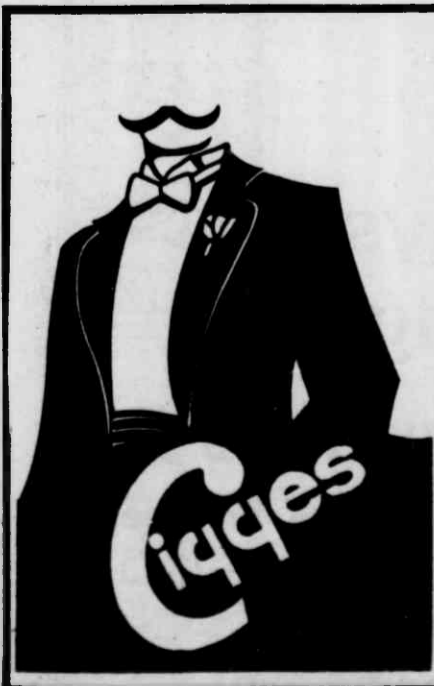

As 25 women sampled the mouth watering full course French dinner they prepared July 11 at the Charlotte Russe, the over-all opinion was one of good taste.
