

Ha Lailah BBW Charlotte Chapter BBW

Pool Party

Ha Lailah Chapter started the year's events off with a splash with a "Pool Party" held at the home of Penny Eisenberg on Sunday afternoon, August 12.

The special guest at the program was Selma Burton, a bartender for the Athletic Club. Selma taught us how to make and possibly improve various drinks, ranging from a Martini to a Marguerita.

There were approximately 25 people in attendance and everyone had an opportunity to sample each drink demonstrated. Following the demonstration everyone enjoyed the remainder of the afternoon in casual conversation with their friends.

Business Meeting

Ha Lailah Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women has made a change. In the past the meeting held the second Tuesday of the month, has been referred to as the "Board Meeting." As a result, Ha Lailah Chapter members feel attendance at these meetings is not what it could be, because members or prospective members, are of the assumption that these are held for Board members only. However, this is not the case, as they are open to anyone who would like to attend. Ha Lailah is changing the name to "Business Meetings." Ha Lailah welcomes all who wish to attend, whether an existing member or someone who would like to find out more about the Chapter, its involvement in various community services and events planned for the upcoming year.

Ha Lailah Chapter will hold its next "Business Meeting" at the Armstrong House on Tuesday, September 11 at 8 p.m. It will be open to everyone.

Where We've Been

Charlotte B'nai B'rith Women made a real "SPLASH" on August 18. Fun was had by all members, husbands and friends attending the dinner and annual pool party at the lovely home of Reggie and Myron Wittlin. Many thanks for the warm hospitality offered by the Wittlins!

Ring, Ring! Who's there?...might have been the slogan as twelve members participated in the Summer Festival Membership Drive Telethon to support public television — WTVI (Channel 42).

Who are those smartly "accessorized" women walking around Charlotte? Why, Charlotte BBW and Chai Chaverim BBG, of course. Together they hosted an Accessory Fashion Show and Salad Bar Luncheon on August 29 at Temple Beth El. The show was sponsored by Monet Jewelry. Special thanks to Steve Coen who coordinated it and provided door prizes and favors. Models displaying many styles of Monet Jewelry were BBG and BBW members. Who really had the youngest looking hands ladies?!

What We're Doing

"ADL" booklets have been distributed to all Charlotte schools. The Sick Loan Chest has moved to 2730 Rozzells Ferry Road. For information concerning this call Lillian Sutta, 821-9890.

As community involvement with Amblyopia (lazy eye) screening begins in Charlotte schools, members are needed for all types of involvement, from paper work to actual screening. A meeting will be held September 20 at 10 a.m. For more information, call Margie Liebshtein, 541-1811 or Iline Goldfischer, 541-0899.

Goblins, ghoulies, witches, and pumpkins will highlight a presentation of tapes to the children's units at Charlotte Memorial and Presbyterian Hospitals in October. Members have been busy all summer recording tapes for the children to listen to while in bed or enroute for tests.

Where We're Going

"Our Legacy, Our Future," will be held at Temple Beth El on Sept. 19 at 7:30 p.m. For reservations, members may call Susan Coen, 366-9539.

Our community is where we live, so why not help to give something back? Charlotte BBW will be sponsoring a forum which is open to the public, Wednesday, October 3, 11:30 a.m., at Temple Beth El. "Identifying Risk Taking Behavior in Children and Teens" is coordinated with Mecklenburg Council on Adolescence and their "Let's Talk" week. It coincides with National Family Sexuality Education Week. Lunch will be available.
