

JCC Fall Class Schedule

We're Moving

On September 17 the Jewish Community Center will be moving from its present location at 600 N. Sharon Amity to the Armstrong House, which sits adjacent to the site of the new center.

Center programs will take place at the Armstrong House and at other locations in the community as has been the J's practice over the past year. The Hebrew Academy has graciously agreed to provide space to the Center for a variety of programs including Creative Playgroup and After-school Care. The 'J' is in the process of lining up tennis facilities and soccer practice space for the membership, and will communicate these new arrangements directly to members when plans are finalized.

The Fall Program Guide lists the locations of each of the programs.

Afterschool Care Program

For the first time, the Jewish Community Center is offering an after-school care program, Monday through Friday from two to six in the afternoon. It will be located in the children's house at the Hebrew Academy. Parents may elect a monthly, weekly or drop-in arrangement for their elementary school-aged children.

Upon arriving, children will be greeted with snacks. They will have the opportunity to be assisted with homework, to participate in outdoor and indoor games, and to celebrate events with special activities (e.g.: Baking birthday cupcakes, enjoying a guest musician). The program is available as of September 4 and runs throughout the school year. Parents are strongly encouraged to pre-register.

Hours: Monday - Friday, 2 - 6 p.m.
 Location: Hebrew Academy, 910 Sardis Lane
 Fee: Monthly: $115 M/$130 NM
 Weekly: $30 M/ $35 NM
 Daily: $7 M/18 NM

Registration Information

This catalogue of activities presents information on programs for the period beginning September 1984.

HOW TO REGISTER

1. Review these pages with your family and decide which activities you and your children wish to participate in.
2. Since registration begins immediately, complete and mail in the registration form on the next page, or bring it to the Center office, with the specified fee.
3. Registration must be accompanied by the FULL FEE and telephone registration will be accepted for all classes which begin prior to Sept. 22.
4. Classes begin as each is indicated.
5. Payment will not be accepted after the first class, unless prior arrangements are made.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

All activities are scheduled on a minimum number of participants. We regret that should a class not register sufficient numbers, it will be cancelled and all fees will be refunded.

Because classes are based on a limited enrollment, activity fees are not refundable upon cancellation by a participant unless the place can be filled.

YOUR SUGGESTIONS ARE ENCOURAGED

The Center's activities are based upon the interests and concerns of our members. We hope to be flexible enough to change and expand services where physically and financially possible. Therefore, your suggestions and ideas are appreciated.

You are cordially invited to serve on any of the numerous or administrative committees of the Center, and to thereby assist in its growth and development.

COMPLAINTS & SUGGESTIONS

Our Center is only as good as our knowledge of the growing and changing needs of our members. We know that we make mistakes, and we want to correct them as quickly as possible. Please communicate your complaint to any member of the Center's program staff, Board of Directors, the Executive Director, or the President.
