ORT

Women's American ORT began this season's programs with a brief slide show on the vocational classes taught at the various ORT schools, followed by a lovely fashion show held at the Randolph Road Apts. Clubhouse. The clothing was made by ORT students in France, Israel and Morocco. The models were members Sue Ett, Kathy Katz and Dorothy Shapiro. Lydia Kohn, the moderator, described the schools in each of the countries where the clothes were made. It was fulfilling to see the actual items made by the students we help train by our support of the ORT schools. This portion of the program was then followed by the special guest speaker, Paula McIlvain, manager of the SouthPark Casual Corner. She brought samples of clothing from the store and discussed ways of coordinating and building a personal wardrobe that "works for you."

Paid Up Membership Dinner

The annual paid up membership dinner will be held on Oct. 24 at the home of Ellen Cooper, 3416 Champaign St. An Israeli dinner will be served. Special guest speaker will be Joel Shatzky, an exchange professor at UNCC. Mr. Shatzky was commissioned by the First Street Playhouse of Ithaca, NY to write a play on American Jews and the topic of his talk will be "American Jews' Attitude Toward Israel." All members and potential members are encouraged to come; they may even pay their dues at the door, providing that they have called for a reservation.

Temple Beth El Kallah

Temple Beth El's Labor Day Weekend Kallah at Wildacres, organized by our incredible Sally Schrader, was, by unanimous opinion, outstanding. Dr. Jack Sasson, a Syrian born Jew, who is professor in the department of religious studies at the University of NC, Chapel Hill, was not only erudite but a gifted and witty speaker who made us eager to attend each of his sessions. Of course, our good meals were always followed by group singing led by the Rabbi with Marvin Bienstock and Lisa Vernon, our new Education and Youth Director, accompanying on their guitars. Parents of young children were free to enjoy the glorious weather, scholarly sessions and their leisure, knowing that Darcy Bienstock was keeping their children happily busy with many activities not the least of which was their delightful singing as part of the Entertainment Night organized by Anne Yudell. A special part of that production was the duets sung by Rabbi and Mrs. Krantzler.

The Havdalah Service, ending the Sabbath, was held out-of-doors with the glorious mountains as a backdrop from the pulpit. Surely, Wildacres, as I.D. Blumenthal said, is "a gift from God."
