Special Afternoon Planned By JCC

Community Invited To "Imagination Tour"

Irene Komor, JCC Children's director, indulges her imagination as she dips her toe in the indoor pool.

The Jewish Community Center invites you and your family to join in the excitement and festivities planned for our initial tour of the new Center facilities. The tour will take place on Sunday, April 14, from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. We are planning self-conducted tours, guided by maps and arrows. Tour guides will be stationed at various locations to answer questions about the services and programs planned for specific areas. "Happenings" or demonstrations of potential activities, including music, dance and athletics, will take place throughout the afternoon.

Southeast Small Cities Conference To Convene

Volunteer and professional leaders of Southeast Small Cities will convene to discuss "Challenges and Opportunities for Jewish Federations, May 17-19, at the Desoto Hilton in Savannah, Georgia. Norton Melaver of Savannah is chairman of the event.

Designed to address the specialized concerns of small cities in the Southeast, the Conference will include a wide variety of key issues facing Jewish leaders, considered from the perspective of small communities in the geographic area.

Dr. Reuven Kimelman of Brandeis University will deliver the keynote address at the Shabbat dinner, and serve as scholar in residence throughout the Conference. Associate Professor of Talmud and Midrash in the Brandeis

Department of Near Eastern and Judaic Studies, Dr. Kimelman holds bachelor degrees from both Columbia University and Jewish Theological Seminary, a Master's degree from JTS, and Master's and Doctoral degrees from Yale University. He is the Chief Program Associate of the National Jewish Resource Center.

Published widely in many well-known scholarly and popular journals, Professor Kimelman has been a major speaker at the CJF General Assembly.

Transportation will be provided for those who need assistance. Arrangements can be made by calling the JCC, 366-0357. A rain date has been scheduled for Sunday, April 21.

Everyone who attends will receive a raffle ticket, making them eligible for a free health club membership drawing in the fall. Custom-made buttons and "Imagination Tour" maps will serve as mementos of this historic day. Refreshments will be served from the snack bar and kitchen areas.

All members of the community are welcome to attend the JCC Annual meeting and election at the construction site immediately following the tour.

"Church-State Issues: Implications for Jewish Community Relations" will be addressed by Albert Chernin, Executive Vice Chairman of the National Jewish Com-

HEBREW ACADEMY GALA: Going clockwise — Patti Weisman (L.), Peggy Gartner, Hebrew Academy president, Florence Widis (R.) going over recipes to make the hors d'oeuvres for this special night; Florence busy at her cuisanart preparing her "specialty" for the evening; Patti also starting a batch of "goodies." If you would like more information and would like to attend the Gala, being held at Morrocroft on April 27, call Florence at 525-3957.

GALGALIM Is Coming To Town

On Wednesday, April 24 at 8 p.m., the multi-talented GALGALIM will be performing at Temple Beth El. Co-sponsored by the B'nai B'rith Lodge, the Jewish Community Center and the Jewish Federation, this musical experience is perfect for the entire family.

GALGALIM is a wonderful musical trip of Israel presented in the exciting performances of Brynie and Moshe. GALGALIM shows Israel as seen through the eyes of Brynie, an American Olah, and Moshe, the native born Israeli. Combined together with a Broadway-like presentation that makes their performances glitter and touch everyone present, GALGALIM is the perfect blend of music and theatre.

The stage production features a unique use of film clips projected on a huge screen behind the performers. This special media effect transforms the GALGALIM into a theatrical setting where the audience is enveloped in
