News From Temple Beth El

Dr. Bertha Maxwell, chair of the Afro-American and African Studies Department at UNCC, spoke on "Jewish Women/Black Women: Exploring Our Differences and Commonalities," at Temple Beth El on March 13. This program was sponsored by the Sisterhood in cooperation with the Afro-American Cultural Center. Rinky Glanzman was in charge of arrangements.

The confirmation class's pilgrimage the weekend of March 15-17 was a visit to the Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati, Ohio. With confirmands from other reform congregations around the country, they attended a Friday evening worship service and a tour of the campus, featuring the rare book room, the art gallery, the archives and the library. There were also discussions led by student rabbis. On Saturday evening a Havdalah service was held at the Plum Street Temple.

The religious school students attended a model seder on March 21.

A brief sabbath and festival service preceded the congregational seder on April 5, which was well attended by members and guests. Both services were conducted by Rabbi Krantzer.

Installation of the Sisterhood's officers and board for 1985-86 was held at the regular sabbath morning service on April 13. This was followed by a lovely luncheon. Jerry Helton, a member of the music faculty at Winthrop College and the temple's vocal soloist, provided the entertainment.

The new officers of Sisterhood are: Judy Perlin, president; Lisa Foley, membership vp; Madeline Joffe, program vp; Ruth Lubin, fund raising vp; Pat Shapiro, treasurer; Doris Edelstein, financial secretary; Jane Heller, corresponding secretary; Muriel Lintz, recording secretary.

Older Adult Luncheon

During the month of March, Ha Lailah was the cosponsor of the older adult luncheon with the Charlotte Jewish Federation. The event was held on Sunday, March 10 from 4 - 6 p.m. at Temple Beth El. Ha Lailah members "cooked up a storm" and served a delicious hot supper for the older adults in the community. Musical entertainment was provided by clarinetist, Dr. Jay Kirsch, and guitarist, Dr. Jim Bedrick. Charlotte senior adults, Ha Lailah members and their families spent the afternoon singing and dancing and socializing with one another. Many thanks to Dr. Kirsch and Dr. Bedrick and Brenda Manes for orchestrating the event.

Passover Baskets

Again this year Ha Lailah sponsored "Passover Holiday Baskets" for Jewish families with special needs. The idea behind this project is to provide special families with additional support during the Passover season. Ha Lailah members collected food and prepared the baskets which were then distributed by Social Services of the Charlotte Jewish Federation.

Installation

On April 16, Ha Lailah held an installation dinner at Jonathan's. New officers are: President, Wendy Rosen; Programming VP, Deborah Weinstein; Membership VP, Shelley Schmeer; Fundraising VP, Brenda Manes; Community Volunteer Service VP, Lizzann Taylor; Communications VP, Maddie Joffe; Recording Secretary, Jodi Cohen; Financial Secretary, Ellen Goldstein; Corresponding Secretary, Jackie Stutts; Treasurer, Deborah Palefsky; Counselor, Sara Schreiberman.
