

B'nai B'rith Women

Charlotte Chapter

On January 7, Charlotte Chapter, along with the JCC, sponsored the Older Adult Luncheon. The Sardis Stars, a local square dancing group, entertained. Thanks go to Beth Linderman, Joan Gordon, and their committee.

Mental Health Fair

On March 9 at Eastland Mall from 12:30 to 5:30 p.m. Charlotte Chapter will cosponsor, with the Mental Health Association, a Mental Health Fair. Agencies dealing with children's mental health problems will be there to address two main questions: how to know if there is a problem and where to go for appropriate help. Anyone interested in working on this project can call Linda Binnick, 552-1435.

Eyes for the Needy

Old eyeglass frames can be dropped off at Temple Beth El. For further information call Betty Silver, 366-9192.

Arosa House

Anyone interested in preparing frozen dinners for the children at Arosa House may contact Judy Miller, 542-5921. Remember, the next time you are making spaghetti casseroles, etc., make a little extra and freeze for Arosa House.

Ha Lailah Chapter

Sue and Bob Brodsky graciously opened their home on January 11 for the 10th anniversary celebration of Ha Lailah BBW. Rozanne Sklar and her committee made the presentations after hors d'oeuvres and a deli buffet. Candles on the anniversary cake were lit by the 10 who have served as presidents of the chapter. Pledges were made to continue the many local and international projects and services of B'nai B'rith Women.

The annual ADL program will be held on Feb. 10, 8 p.m., in the Randolph Park Apts. Clubhouse. Roger Sharp, director for N.C. People for the American Way, will speak on "Protection of our Schools Against the Moral Majority." "Entertainment Books" are still being sold; contact Brenda Manes, 365-9338. For more information concerning Ha Lailah call Linda Goldsmith, 847-6403.
