Dr. Jared Schwartz has been named national chairman of the American College of Pathologists' program committee, responsible for programming events. He also serves on the Council on Education and Publication, as well as the microbiology resource and regional public services committee. He is a member of the Presbyterian Pathology Group and is medical director for the hospital's department of pathology and laboratory medicine.

Tomaz Diaz has been named vice president, sales and marketing, Central Technical Services Inc. Jerry Radowitz was named controller, Communication Services Inc., Charlotte.

David Arazie is an X-ray assistant/transporter for Mercy Hospital Volunteer Services, an agency that serves the patients at the hospital and makes them more comfortable and feel more welcome while in the facility. Arazie has volunteered 50 to 75 hours per month for three years and is always dependable and willing to work in any capacity.

Arazie, a retired merchant, has earned his 2,000 hour pin. He is also a volunteer for the Jewish Social Services and is in charge of evening prayer meetings at Temple Israel.

Amy Rothschild, daughter of Rabbi and Mrs. Robert Seigel, has been included in "Who's Who in American Universities." She is a senior at the University of South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Friedlander can be very proud of their two sons: Spencer Friedlander has made the Honors Band - All State District Band (High School) and Larry Friedlander was named to the fall Dean's list at UNC-CH.

Ben Melenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Melenson, has been selected by audition to be in the Junior High All-County Honors Orchestra for Mecklenburg County.

Deborah Klein, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Klein, has been accepted as an event participant in "Studio '86," a select Girl Scout institute in Evansville, Indiana. She was one of 27 selected nationwide for a vocal major at the 14-day institute, held on the campus of the University of Evansville. Deborah has been a Girl Scout for eight years and is currently a member of Troop 499.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lerner's three sons have all made the fall Dean's list at their perspective universities: Mark Lerner at Georgetown; Gary Lerner at Emory; Eric Lerner at Wharton School, U. of Pennsylvania.

Members of Charlotte BBYO attended the Eastern Regional Convention (Raleigh, December). BBG placed first in "alma mater" and AZA won 1st place for T-shirt. Individual winners were Allison Kaufman for storytelling and Jacob Spil for oratory.

Word has been received from State of Israel Bonds office in Memphis, TN that Sol Kirschbaum recently passed away. Many of the community knew and worked with him on our annual Bond dinners.

Tracy Josephson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Josephson, a senior at Myers Park High School, has had five of her photographs selected for the current photographic show at Spirit Square. Two of her photographs were selected for the show's highest award, the Merit of Excellence. Only five photographs were selected for the award.

The "Sting" Is Coming

On April 12, beginning at 8 p.m., Temple Beth El's Fellowship Hall will be "buzzing" with the noise and excitement of another era — the 1920s. Temple Beth El plans to put the "fun" back into fundraising with its First Annual Sting.

For $8 per person (advanced ticket sale) or $10 per person at the door, it will be a night to remember. Each ticket will entitle you to a quantity of play money (chips) to be used at the gaming tables (roulette, blackjack, craps), a chance for many door prizes, and dessert and coffee which will be served during the auction. Your chips ("winnings") will then be used in bidding for some beautiful, exciting items at the auction which will take place at 10:30 p.m. All during the evening there will be food and beverages available.

For advanced tickets please mail your check made payable to Temple Beth El, att: R. Mond, 1727 Providence Rd., Charlotte, NC 28207. For further information call 366-1948 (days) or 366-6632 (evenings). This fun evening is open to all adults in our community, so bring your neighbors, your friends, but most of all make sure you do not miss out on this unique event!
