Thanks go to many of our local merchants who contributed to making Super Sunday successful. Volunteers were supplied with bagels, cakes, etc. from Bubbe's Bagels; The House of Hunan, Gilio's and Shun Lee gave free dinners to the volunteers who had the most "balloons" for each shift. Some of the winning volunteers also received gift certificates and merchandise from Tops on Down, The Eye Care Clinic, the Kronovet family, Sandy Berlin and Famous Mart. Balloons were given out for new pledges and for increased pledges. Some chairs were so loaded with balloons that they almost took flight.

PASSOVER

Harris Teeter is helping out with your Passover needs. In addition to our regular line of Kosher foods, we will carry a full line of Passover foods. Look for our in-store display with Manischewitz brands at the following locations:

Carmel and Quail Hollow Roads
Cotswold Providence Square Sharon Road
