

CAJE: Joel Grishaver Will Lead Unique Programs

Joel Lurie Grishaver, nationally known Jewish educational personality, will be in Charlotte leading three unique programs in our community on Sunday, Nov. 6.

Joel is a professional cartoonist. You may not recognize his name, but his distinctive and humorous Jewish drawings are very widely known. He is an author of numerous articles for popular magazines such as Hadassah and Shofar, and has written 22 books for children, used in homes and religious schools across the Carolinas. Joel is a publisher, founder and Creative Chairperson of Torah Aura Productions in Los Angeles, purveyors of some of the most creative Jewish educational materials currently on the market. In that capacity, Joel created novel tools for Jewish learning, including "Torah Toons," "Plain Wrap Jewish Games," "Instant Lessons," and the "Building Jewish Life Series." He is a master teacher and is on the faculty of the University of Judaism in Los Angeles. Joel is presently traveling the U.S. on an innovative JWB grant, developing children's museums in Jewish community centers in major American cities. We are delighted to be able to host one of the most creative "movers and shakers" on the Jewish educational scene.

Three very different programs, each with appeal for a specific target audience, will be led by Joel Grishaver.

World Beat

WASHINGTON (JTA) — Rabbi Arthur Schneier, president of the Appeal of Conscience Foundation, has been nominated by President Reagan as an alternate U.S. representative to the U.N. General Assembly session.

The Vienna-born Schneier is also the first rabbi to be named a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

(JTA) — Israeli Arabs are benefitting from the unrest in the territories. Before the uprising, Israelis drove regularly to the West Bank and Gaza Strip to shop for bargains.

Now they are going instead to the Arab villages in Israel, which are considered safe and undersell Jewish vendors.

(JTA) — For 40 years Winnipeg's Jewish population was stationary, with a population in the neighborhood of 20,000. The peak year was 1961. The population now stands at just under 14,500, with 27 percent it needed to begin its quest of the systematic annihilation of the Jews.

No place where Jews lived escaped the violence of that November night...90 were killed; 30,000 were arrested. Homes and businesses were looted. Synagogues were destroyed. Torahs were desecrated. With this the Holocaust had begun.

As historical revisionists try to negate the existence of the Holocaust and as others suggest that it is time for world Jewry to forget the Holocaust, it becomes more incumbent upon us to learn and remember the tragic lesson of our history. Kristallnacht should be a haunting reminder to all of us of the very tenuous position in which world Jewry remains.

It is important that we show our solidarity by attending the Kristallnacht commemoration.

If we do not remember, then who will!!

over 65. This compares with 23 percent in the 1981 census.

Winnipeg, formerly the third largest Jewish community in Canada, now is closer to fourth and possibly fifth place, edged out by Vancouver and rivaled by Ottawa.

TEL AVIV (JTA) — The Bolshoi Ballet will send its world-famous dancers to Israel next year, and the Red Army Chorus is to tour the Jewish state the following year, under an agreement reached in Moscow.

The Soviets authorized a group of Australian Jewish singers to tour the Soviet Union in November, under the auspices of the Soviet Ministry of Culture. They will be the first foreign Jews to perform in the Soviet Union in recent memory.

In addition, the Soviets and Israelis have agreed to cooperate on a binational Chamber of Commerce.

Kristallnacht to be Commemorated

UJA was established after Kristallnacht. Signing the UJA charter on Jan. 10, 1939 (L to R): Wm. Rosenwald of National Coordinating Committee for Aid to Refugees; Rabbi Hillel Silver of United Palestine Appeal; Rabbi Jonah B. Wise of American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee. Photo from UJA.

(Editor's note: A special thank you to Temple Israel and Temple Beth El V'Shalom Sisterhoods for postponing their annual joint meeting for this very special event, and for their generosity in providing refreshments for the evening.)
