

NC B'nai B'rith Held Leadership Weekend

By Ken Stern
President, NC State Assoc.

Members of the North and South Carolina State Associations met on February 25-26 for a Leadership Development Weekend. Held at the Pinehurst Hotel and Country Club, the weekend provided an opportunity for local and state leaders to socialize, learn new skills and more about the role and structure of B'nai B'rith.

The workshop, the first held since 1985, was sponsored by the North Carolina State Association. The focus of the weekend was to provide an overview of skills that could be applied in both a business environment and in performing volunteer work for B'nai B'rith. Twenty-one people were in attendance, representing eight lodges in the Carolinas. Representing the Charlotte lodge were Jim Meadow, Scott Gorelick, Scott Menaker, Frank Rosen and Ken Stern.

Dr. Henry Ray Wengrow, District Five president, provided some common sense ideas on how to be a more effective manager and delegator. Mike Ivers, District Five executive vice-president, led a session on the "New Structure and Vision of B'nai B'rith." Mike also presented a lighthearted look at the "Buzz and Fuzz" words in our society today (a
