TALK TORAH IN SIGN LANGUAGE FOR A QUIET SHABBAT FUN ACTIVITY

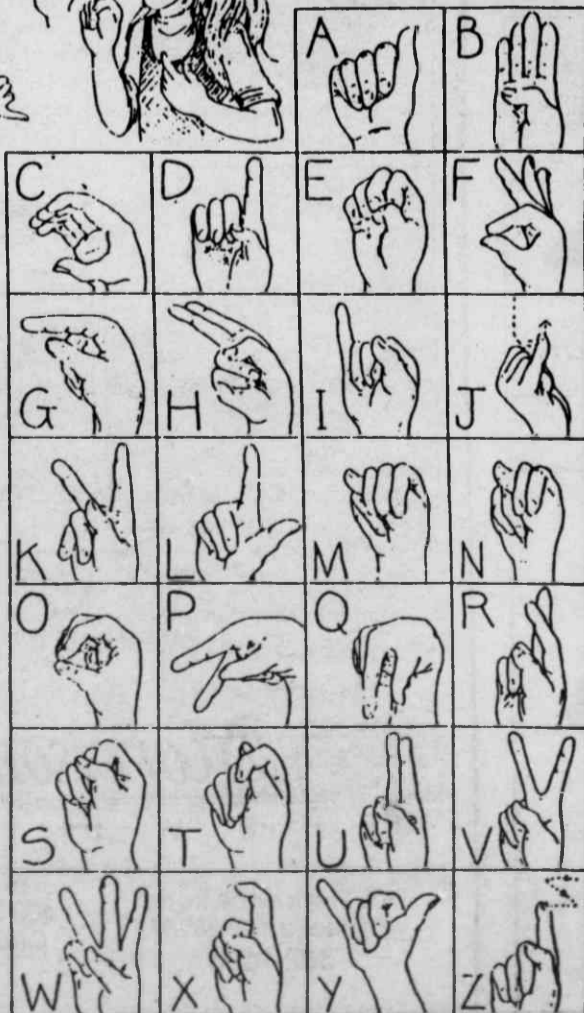

A child who is deaf cannot learn English or any other spoken language by hearing it and figuring it out. Deaf children can learn to "hear" with their eyes. There are two ways:

One is finger spelling: Each letter of the alphabet has its own sign. People talk by spelling out the words they want to communicate.

Spell out these words and see if your classmates can decipher them. Then try them on the family next Shabbat.

- Sabbath
Rest
Holiness
Joy
Love
Peace
Understanding
Goodwill
Torah (Or Bible)
- The main points in the story of creation.
- "Sing" a song with sign language.

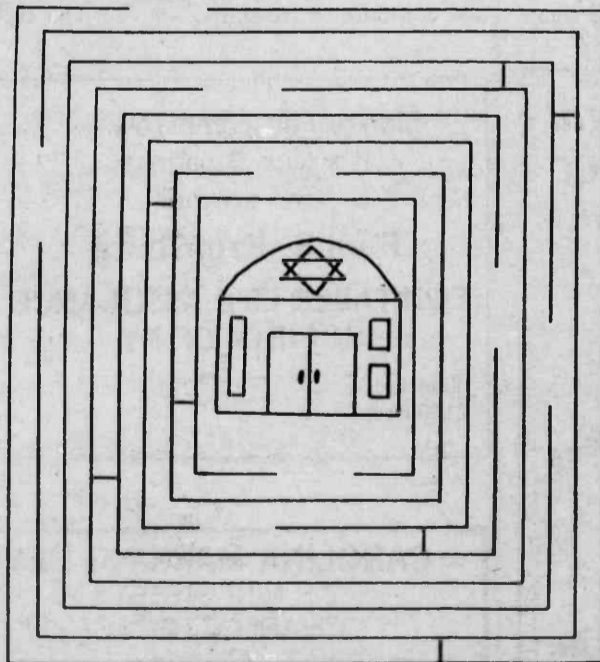

SOME SILENT TALKING

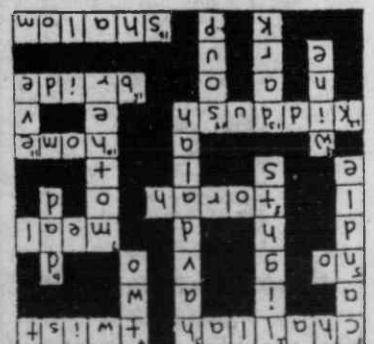

"Someone Is Listening," a new videotape (suitable for children and adults) about Jewish attitudes towards the deaf and "Jewish Sign Language" is available in the CAJE Resource Center. Call us at 366-1948.
