Carolina Connection

In response to our huge success of the Singles Symposium, the JCC is providing a new organization for Jewish Singles called the CAROLINA CONNECTION. This group will provide social, charitable and educational activities. There will be two levels of activities: one will be informal for the metropolitan singles, the other will be for weekends to reach singles in a wider range.

Mothers Morning Out

The purpose of the Jewish Community Center's Mother's Morning Out Program is to provide a high-quality first experience for your infant or toddler in a warm and loving Jewish atmosphere. Our program serves as a bridge between the home and the child's first pre-school experience. We provide a secure and trusting environment in which your child can develop emotionally, physically and intellectually. Our teachers will help your child in learning to interact with their peers in group situations. The world of Mother's Morning Out is one of friends, messy art projects, games, music, outdoor play, and much more. This year will be filled with fun, excitement and learning.
