

Carolina Connection

(Jewish Singles—Over 30)

Carolina Connections enjoyed a fantastic champagne brunch Nov. 19 at Joan Lyons's home. Singles from Greensboro drove in to join the fun.

Upcoming events will be a Superbowl Party, Passover Se-der, Sock Hop, Les Miserables (show and dinner) and more.

We would like your input to help plan future programs or if you need more information, please call Fran Rosenberg, 366-5007.

JCC Announces New Awards

Staff of the Month

Paul Jacobs

Barry Hantman, executive director of the Jewish Community Center, is pleased to announce that the JCC will be recognizing, once a month, a member of its staff for outstanding service to the 'J.' This person shall be recognized for services performed above and beyond the call of duty.

The recipient of the first staff of the month award goes to Paul Jacobs, Building Superintendent. The morning after Hurricane Hugo, Paul was already assessing the damage at Shalom Park and worked the entire weekend to begin repairing the many damages incurred due to the storm. We are very grateful to Paul for his dedication and loyalty to his organization.

Paul has been a member of the JCC staff since 1986. In his position as Building Superintendent at Shalom Park, Paul oversees the functioning of the housekeeping department, building repairs and grounds maintenance.

Paul and his wife Janet settled in the Charlotte area three years ago. Previously, Paul and his family lived in the Ft. Lauderdale, Florida area where he was the Building Superintendent at the Jacaranda Golf and Country Club. Paul and Janet have three lovely children: Kevin, age 5, and their adorable twins, Brian and Loraine, age 2. Recently, Paul completed the requirements and received his mechanical contractor's license. With this under Paul's belt, this will only add to the many professional services Paul does for the park. Congratulations Paul!

Volunteer of the Month

Mike Van Glish, president of the Jewish Community Center, is pleased to announce that the JCC will be sponsoring a volunteer of the month award. This award will be presented in recognition to one or more individuals who have performed an outstanding service for the JCC that is above and beyond the call of duty.

Mike stated recently, "Volunteers are so vital to the success of the JCC programs; without them the JCC would not be able to offer such an outstanding and diversified array of programs. Over the years, we have called on a great number of individuals to help us provide the kinds of programs that are instrumental to the success of this organization. The time has come to start recognizing some of these individuals."

With that in mind, the Jewish Community Center is pleased to announce that the first recipients of this award for the month of December go to Marsha Scheer and Ethel Gordon. Without their tremendous efforts and support, the recent success of the Golden Circle Theatre performmance in November would not have been possible. A hearty "mazel tov" to both Marsha and Ethel.
