

Older Adult Hot Lunch Program to Begin

IT'S FANTASTIC, IT'S WONDERFUL, IT'S MARVELOUS, IT'S NUTRITIOUS, IT'S HOT AND IT'S HERE AT THE J!

What is "IT"? It is the older adult hot lunch program at the JCC which begins Monday, Feb. 19. This program is geared for those adults over 60 who would like to meet at the "J," have an opportunity to participate in our program of the day and partake of a well balanced kosher lunch. Transportation will be available to the JCC and back to the participants' homes. There will be a nominal fee for the lunch and transportation.

This lunch program will be offered on Mondays and Fridays. The Friday program will include the traditional Shabbat challah, candles, wine and an enjoyable Judaic program.

Reservations will be necessary for meals and transportation. A booklet outlining the program and all of the policies involved will be in the mail soon.

Many thanks to the B'nai B'rith Men's Lodge for providing the candles and the candlesticks and to Phil Levine for donating the Challah for the Shabbat portion of our Hot Lunch Program. If anyone would like to donate wine for this portion of our program, your generosity will be truly appreciated.

Volunteers are needed to help with table setting and clearing. We are very excited about this program. If anyone has any questions or would like to volunteer some time please call me at the JCC, 366-5007.

The Chai-Lites are Kept Busy

Officer Ben Davis, Charlotte Police Dept., speaks to Chai members about Sr. Home Safety & Crime Prevention.

The Chai-Lites began 1990 with a little bit of everything. Two lucky members were models for a demonstration of a "non-surgical facelift." Louise Wunder and Noel Newsome from NU SKIN did this interesting demonstration which everyone enjoyed, especially our (younger looking) models. Members were enlightened regarding catastrophic health care coverage and other important issues by Tony Weaver of N.C. Federal Savings. Everyone warmed up with homemade soup (ala Sr. Adult Director) as they watched the award-winning movie, "Rain Man."

HaLailah B'nai B'rith Women sponsored a fun program on the art of making pasta. Everyone enjoyed the delicious samples and the attention of this fine group of women.

The JCC van took the "Out to Lunch" bunch to one of their favorite restaurants and for a "Mall Walk." And if that wasn't enough, we visited the Scheile Museum in Gastonia.

We are still collecting canned goods and paper goods for Jewish Family Services. Look for information soon in the mail about the CHAI RAFFLE. We have some terrific prizes including Hornets tickets and some beautiful jewelry. Information about future events and the Chai-Lites calendar can be found in The CJN. For more information call Marcia Stern, Director of Sr. Adult Programs.
