DATING SERVICE

On March 11, the Matchmaking Dating Service made its Television Debut. Fran Rosenberg, director of Adult Services and Helen Roth, Matchmaker volunteer appeared with television celebrity Barbara McKay of "Top of the Day." Topics discussed on the program included the history of the Jewish matchmaking, as well as the 90 plus single participants busily dating through our program. Some of our participants are meeting many new people while others are seeking more serious relationships.

All Jewish singles 21 and older living within a 90-mile commute of the JCC are invited to join. It's easy! Just stop by the JCC any Tuesday, 6-9 p.m. or Sunday, 2-5 p.m. The donation for JCC members is double chai ($36) and for non-members triple chai ($54).

For more information call Fran Rosenberg at JCC, 366-5007.

Two More Plays Presented by JCC And Golden Circle

Tickets are still available for the two remaining plays cosponsored by the JCC and the Golden Circle Theatre for their annual fundraising.

"Rashomon," by Faye and Michael Kamin, is an imaginative drama, based on a Japanese folk tale. It suggests that there are three sides to every story: her version, his version, and the truth. It will be performed on Apr. 11, 13, 18, 20 and 21. "Private Lives" by Noel Coward, a comedy of sophisticated wit which is about a game of marital "musical chairs" played by a pair of newlywed couples, will be presented on May 2, 4, 9, 11 and 13.

All performances are at Shalom Park in Gorelick Hall at 8:15 p.m., except Sunday matinees at 2 p.m. Single tickets may be purchased at the JCC reception desk or at the door: $10 each; $9 each for students, sr. citizens and JCC members.

Third Annual Singles Symposium Weekend

WHAT IS IT?

A very special weekend for Jewish singles, age range 25+, from throughout the South offering opportunities to meet people just like yourself in a warm, friendly, non-pressured environment.
