Teen Connection Volunteer Needed

Teen Connection is a Jewish Youth group for 7th-8th graders. We need a volunteer to help plan and attend social programs held once a month. If you like to be with kids and have a great time, this is the volunteer position for you. It is a great way to get active in the Jewish community. For more information please call Carolyn Gitlin, 366-5007.

BBYO News

BBYO has been very busy over the past several months getting the year into full swing. At the end of the summer AZA and BBG had a combined intake pool party to recruit new members. Both chapters recruited approximately 20 new members each.

Council execs were held in Chapel Hill, NC and turned out to be a huge success. Alan Shulimson, Karen Schuller, Stacy Katz, Melissa Monosoff and Inna Livchin attended the convention. They learned all types of leadership skills which will enable them to effectively guide their chapter to a very active year. Upcoming conventions include MIT/AIT, Winter Cultural which is held in Charlotte and Regional Convention in Winston Salem.

BBG just held a very successful attic sale. The members donated items from their homes to raise money for their chapter. An ad in The Charlotte Observer, signs and much hard work brought a lot of traffic through Gorelick Hall and a prosperous day for Chai Chaverim.

The year is getting off to a good start. Both chapters have the energy to take their chapters to new heights in the upcoming year.

AZA and BBG are still accepting applications for anyone who is interested in joining. If you are in the ninth through twelfth grades, Jewish and love to make new friends, BBYO is for you. For more information please call Carolyn Gitlin, 366-5007.

BBYO Volunteers Needed

The B'nai B'rith Youth Organization is looking for advisors. We are looking for both male and female volunteers, preferably alumni of BBYO but not a requirement. A BBYO advisor works with 9th-12th graders. Judaic programming, community service projects, social and recreational programming all highlight this volunteer position. If you are interested please call Carolyn Gitlin, 366-5007.
