

Pictorial Highlights — Temple Beth El's 50th Anniversary Celebration Something for Everyone at Three-Day Event

The Sunday picnic lunch attracted more than 300 people.

Seventh Grade Religious School performed an original play by Harry Golden.

OK, so it was a little funny, but I didn't laugh!

All dressed up with someplace to go — enjoying every relaxed minute of the Saturday night gala.

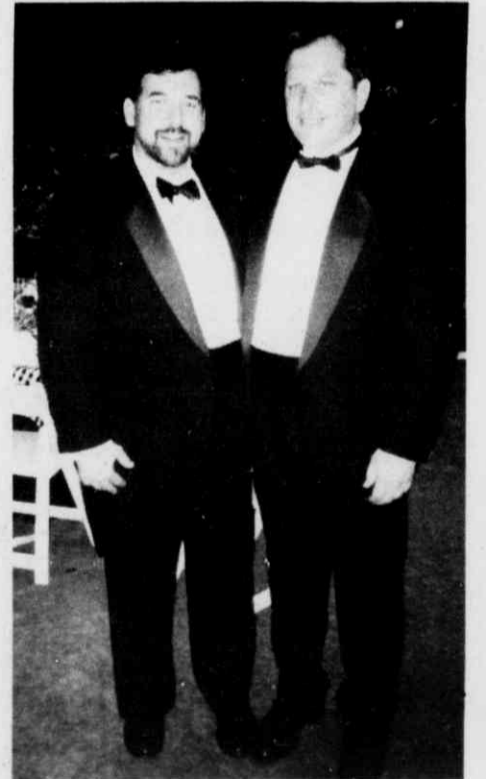

The gallant gentleman took off his jacket and wrapped it around the shoulders of his beautiful damsel.

Mike Tanner, of California, one of "Schindler's Jews," speaks to the Religious School.

Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Grades sing on Sunday morning.

Who are these two distinguished looking gentlemen?

Take the picture already, so we can stop saying cheeez!

When beauty speaks, the camera stops and takes a picture.

A handsome group if ever there was one!
