Scouting Around For First Through Eighth Grade Boys

If you have been waiting around to join either cub scouts or boy scouts, now is the time and the JCC is the place. Cub pack 163 and scout troop 163, sponsored by the JCC, will be accepting new members beginning Thursday September 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the Luski junior congregation room at the JCC. This is the same night publicized as "school night for scouting" in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg schools; so guys grab mom or dad or the whole family and come join the fun. Scouting at the JCC is open to all members of the community regardless of religious affiliation.

Cub scouting is for boys from first through fifth grades and the pack is broken down into dens by school grade. Because Cubbing is run by parents, total family participation is strongly encouraged; and for first graders is mandatory. The only costs are $25 annual dues (payable on the 14th) and approximately $30 for a uniform, (no boy will be turned away for lack of funds). Some of the highlights of the cub year are Pinewood derby, scouting for food service project, blue & gold banquet, and our spring overnight at the scout hut.

Boy scouting is for boys who have completed fifth grade or are at least eleven years of age or older. Scouts are encouraged to take initiative, develop leadership skills, plan and execute their own program with the encouragement of adult leaders. Although the roles change, adult involvement is still needed and appreciated. The basic costs are about the same, but because of a more rigorous program, some additional costs will arise during the year. Some of our activities during the past year have been an active camping program highlighted by a district competitive Camporee (in which our boys excelled) and our annual whitewater trip, scouting for food service project, assisting with habitat for humanity, learning the rudiments of rock climbing, and a week at summer camp although our troop is young, our boys have made great strides on the advancement trail to becoming EagleScouts.

Once again, now is the time and the JCC is the place where you can make scouting happen for your son; don't miss this opportunity. If you have questions call David Lintz at 588-8888 (day) or 364-0227 (evening).
