"An Introduction to Judaism" is designed for anyone seeking a basic introduction to the history, traditions, beliefs and practices of the Jewish people. The course is open to all: Jews, people of all other faiths, Interfaith couples, Jews-by-choice, those considering conversion, as well as those who simply wish to learn about Judaism. These introductory sessions, taught by Rabbi Bennett and Rabbi Ezring, will provide an overview of the Jewish faith from the perspective of Reform and Conservative Judaism.
