United States". Rich Osborne, President of the Jewish Federation added, "The revitalization, development and structuring of the Lawyers Division is most timely and important. We hope through the efforts of Hal and the other members of the steering committee, that a forum will be provided to enable our community to articulate upon the problems and to examine the issues in the context of Jewish law and ethics."

Levinson further stated, "Future events are being planned for the Lawyers Division and it is our expectation that visiting lecturers and related discussions will be stimulating to each individual and help to enrich our community."
