EARLY CHILDHOOD

MOMMY & ME

Spend a quality hour with your child while Linda Lepow guides the class through fascinating weekly themes. You and your child will have fun creating different art projects, dancing and singing to music and cooking. This is also a great opportunity for both you and your child to enjoy the social peer interaction this class provides. This class is a terrific introduction for children prior to entering preschool.

For more information, contact Cherie Woulfowitz, Early Childhood Director at 366-5007, ext. 251.

CHILDREN & FAMILIES

JCC CHILDREN'S INTERACTIVE CONCERT SERIES

THE RON BRENDLE QUINTET

Creative Loafing Magazine recently named bassist, RON BRENDLE, Jazz Artist of the Year. Through Charlotte Jazz Outreach, Ron and his colleagues have performed at 70 schools for over 15,000 students. This great American art form will be brought to life for your children by these talented musicians. They will feel the strong rhythmic pulses of jazz, and learn how to scat sing with the musicians!

Sunday afternoon,
 February 8, 1998 — 2pm

Brightest Beginnings Childcare Center TOY DRIVE

The Special Events Subcommittee of the Early Childhood Department thanks everyone for their contribution of toys and books during our annual toy drive. This year's drive was a wonderful success! The children at the JCC are enjoying the great selection and a tremendous amount of toys were donated to Touchstone, a shelter for battered women. Our donations were especially appreciated before the holidays! Thank you again for your continual support.

"SUNDAYS AT THE J"
