

2nd Annual "Kids In Vogue" Children's Fashion Show Scheduled for March 1, 1998

By Cary Bernstein

Building on the success of last year's event, the 2nd annual "Kids in Vogue" Children's Fashion Show is scheduled at 12:30 p.m. at the Westin Hotel.

"We are very excited about this year. We were so pleased with our inaugural event last March and are looking forward to an even larger crowd this year," said Bobbi Bernstein who serves as this year's honorary chair with Mara Huber.

Tracy Brown is chairing the "Kids in Vogue" Steering Committee and is also enthusiastic about this year's program. "We have assembled a dynamic group of women to work on the committee and together we are planning an afternoon which we hope will be a lot of fun and educate women about the how the work of the Federation helps children throughout the world."

The show is scheduled for 12:30 p.m. at the Westin Hotel. Lunch will be served (at a cost of $25). Anyone who wishes to attend or have their child model will be asked to make a $75 tax deductible contribution to the 1998 UJA/Federation campaign. This donation is payable anytime during 1998. (This contribution is not over and above any previous donation that has been made to the '98 campaign.) (Children who attend the last session of Temple Beth El and wish to model will be offered transportation from Shalom Park down to the hotel.)

Tables are being organized for the program. Gail Baron and Amanda Gitlitz are chairing the recruitment effort. "Our hopes are to reach out to the community to be as inclusive as possible" said Ms. Baron. "If you have not already been contacted to sit at a table, please call Cary Bernstein at the Federation office (366.5007)."

Susan Hennes is in charge of the decorating committee and the decor for this year's event should be spectacular. "Be assured that Susan's creative touch will be evident in the room's decor. Everyone knows that when you ask Susan to take on a job the final product will exceed all expectations," said Ms. Brown. Susan is working with Ellen Framm, Wendy Hennes, Debby Vitale and Dana Gorelick.

Fashion for the show is being provided by Fitigues, London Britches and Sunday's Child.

Stefanie Reiner and Marni Abramowitz arranged for the stores to provide the clothing and will organize the models the day of the show.

Publicity for the event is being coordinated by Deborah Rivkin, who designed and donated the invitations. Jennifer Lahn and Debra Van Glish will work on model entertainment, Tammy Menaker and Holly Levinson are devising the educational program, Jody Molinari is making all the luncheon arrangements and Roni Fishkin will serve as the show moderator. Other steering committee members include: Dana Ditesheim, Sue Coben, Andrea Morgan, Cathy Shait and Jody Michele. ☆

L'Chaim! Charlotte '98 returns May 17, 1998

Shalom Park will once again be turned into a festival as L'Chaim! Charlotte '98, a celebration of Jewish heritage, culture and faith, returns on May 17. This year, the celebration will also commemorate the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the State of Israel.

Plans are now being made for the memorable event. If you would like to be a part, call Cary Bernstein at 366-5007.
