

This Rosh Ha'Shanah, send your New Year Greetings to friends and relatives without ever licking a stamp!

If you're like most of us, you'll probably wait until the last minute to send your annual Jewish New Year greetings. And, like most of us, you will probably regret having waited so long. This year, let The Charlotte Jewish News take care of your New Year greetings for you.

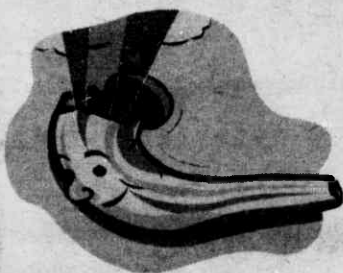

No Postage • No Problems • No Sweat

Join your friends and neighbors in the special Rosh Ha'Shanah Greetings supplement to be published in the September 2000 Charlotte Jewish News. Simply choose your greeting from the samples on this page, fill out the coupon and mail to The CJN with your payment. If you wish to compose your own greeting, choose "E" and include your wording in the space provided. Limit 25 words, PRINTED OR TYPED, please.
