Carolina Agency for Jewish Education (CAJE): Thanks To Our Family and School Members for 2001-2002/5762

It is that time of year when we say thank you to our growing family of CAJE members whose financial support has meant so much during the school year 2001-2002/5762.

To the Blumenthal Family and Foundation, whose underwriting operating grant quite literally keeps the doors to the CAJE Resource Center open, and whose continuing belief in CAJE has made it a reality, we say thank you for all you continue to do on CAJE's behalf. The Blumenthal Foundation is truly in a class of its own.

Thanks to the many individuals, families and schools and organizations of our community who joined and supported CAJE during this school year:

הַאֵם אַתֶּם זוֹכְרִים מֵתִי?

Do You Remember When?

What happens today will be history tomorrow. That's the slogan of the Charlotte Jewish Historical Society. April 21, 2002, is a day that we will reflect fondly on 20 years from now: the day when ground was broken for the next phase of major construction expansion at Shalom Park. Everyone got into the act, even the kids. L'dor v dor ... from generation to generation: our legacy. That's what building and expanding the Park means for the Charlotte Jewish community. This image is from the photo archive of the Charlotte Jewish Historical Society, a project of the Carolina Agency for Jewish Education (CAJE) at Shalom Park.
