

EDUCATION

Fall Semester at the Charlotte Torah Center

The CTC presents a ten class series titled "Fundamentals of Judaism" by Rabbi Roizman, on Tuesday mornings starting October 15 through December 17. Classes will be educational, relevant and interactive. Topics include meaning of life, five misconceptions in Judaism, love and marriage, parenting, and much more. Classes will be held at the Center. Cost: $100.00 for the semester. For registration and information about these and other classes, call 704-367-1225 or email thectc@bellsouth.net.

Additionally, Professor Richard Cohen (UNCC) will be giving a class on "The Rise of Denominational Judaism in America," on Wednesday September 16 at 7:00 PM at the Center. ✧

Library

(Continued from next page)

SPEIZMAN JEWISH LIBRARY FRIENDS

We thank the following generous individuals who contributed to the Friends of the Library campaign in the last few months:

Andrea and David Gamlin, William Ranson, Helen Berman, Robbie McGinley, Susan Hader, Bruce Walker and Dominic Doig, Zoriy and Rima Trost, Judy Shannon, Evelyn Rafla.

Given in memory of Henry Wasserman, father of Roz Cooper, from Ruth and Alan Goldberg.

Given in honor of Adam Sadek

Temple Israel Book Club Old Men at Midnight by Chaim Potok

MONDAY, OCTOBER 14, 7:45 PM AT TEMPLE ISRAEL

When Chaim Potok passed away this summer, he left us a legacy of remarkable and beloved writings. Temple Israel's October 14th book club meeting will discuss Old Men at Midnight, published just a year ago. This trilogy of related novellas are told by old men, as they "roar with rage against the void" and carry us from the Holocaust to Stalinist Russia.

The discussion will be led by Dr. Jay Jacoby, Professor of Literature at UNCC, and a favorite meeting facilitator among Temple Israel Book Club regulars.

Copies of Old Men at Midnight are available at the Speizman Jewish Library, the public library and may be purchased at book stores or on-line for about $15.

Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur are times when all of us are "at midnight" - when we look forward as well as backward. The October 14 meeting should be a memorable conclusion to these days of awe. For additional information call Linda Levy (704-366-6362) or Sandra Hirschman (704-867-7051). ✧ and Michael Solganik becoming bar mitzvahs from Ruth and Alan Goldberg.

SCHULIMSON LIBRARY FUND:

In honor of Andrea Wilson becoming a bat mitzvah by Brook

Whipkey and Jake Cohen.

SPEIZMAN LIBRARY FUND:
In memory of Henry Wasserman, father of Roz Cooper, from Amy Krakovitz and Jeff Montoni. ✧

The Home Computer Tutor

David Greenwald

home-computer-tutor.com

Frustrated & Intimidated by Your Computer?

In the privacy of your home Learn to:

- Feel comfortable with your computer
- Use the internet and email with attachments
- Use your digital camera and scanner...
- AND SO MUCH MORE!!

Senior Discounts!
Special Introductory Offer
Call Now! 704-364-7750

get ready for your next masterpiece

CHARLOTTE'S PREMIER FRAMING SOURCE

Choose from our wide assortment of ready-made picture frames, photo frames and gallery style gold leaf frames.

BINDERS

ART SUPPLIES AND FRAMES

COTSWOLD VILLAGE SHOPS 284 S. Sharon Amity 704.334.4611 MON-SAT 10-9 SUN 12-6 discounted prices everyday

COUPON SAVER

TAKE AN ADDITIONAL

10% OFF

ENTIRE PURCHASE OF
ALREADY DISCOUNTED PRICES

OFFER EXPIRES OCTOBER 31, 2002. (CJT)

