Volunteers Work Round the Clock for Super Sunday

Super Sunday was a huge success by any and all standards. Approximately 90 volunteers made phone calls, wrote thank you notes, and assisted in the effort to call approximately 2,000 people. Special recognition goes to Jewish Family Services who provided the most volunteers for Super Sunday, and are the winners of the 2004 "We Answered the Call Award." Close behind were the Charlotte Jewish Day School and the Jewish Community Center, followed by the Charlotte Jewish Preschool and Temple Beth El.

Because of the Jewish Federation's allocations which support hunger relief in the former Soviet Union and Argentina, and our local support of Jewish Family Services, Loaves and Fishes and the Tzedakah Fund, the donations collected on Super Sunday qualify for a matching grant for hunger relief from the Feinstein Foundation. Thanks to our volunteers and to the religious school students at Temple Beth El and the Consolidated High School of Jewish Studies for their donations of Passover foods, canned goods and paper products collected and donated to the Jewish Family Services Food Bank.

Super Sunday co-chairs Elaine Moody and Matt Samarel wanted to make the day fun for our volunteers. All throughout the day, bells were ringing as solicitors signaled each other that a gift had been closed. Drawings were held during each two-hour segment for gift certificates, generously donated by local area merchants and restaurants (listed below). Rebecca Plaisance and Diane Neveloff were instrumental in collecting these certificates. A total of $76,260 was pledged as a result of our Super Sunday campaign, surpassing last year's $71,000 total. A special thank you goes to the volunteers who generously donated their time to make Super Sunday a success.

Many thanks to SuperSunday co-chairs Matt Samarel and Elaine Moody.

Many thanks to Wolfgang Puck for providing dinner for our volunteers and to Phil's Deli Strawberry Hill for providing breakfast. A special thank you to Alltel for providing cell phones for our use during Super Sunday. The Federation also thanks the following local businesses and business people for graciously donating gift certificates for our Super Sunday volunteers:

The Charlotte Palm, Pacific and Vine, JoJo China Bistro, Mellow Mushroom, Red Rocks Café and Bakery, Miro Spanish Grille, Good Ol' Days, Thai Orchid, Carter Meiselman, Cardillo's, and Wolfgang Puck
