

A Message from the Executive Director...

A new program year for the Sandra and Leon Levine JCC is about to get underway and like each of the previous years, 2004-05 will be marked by growth, excitement and challenge!

Our staff has worked diligently to put together an exceptional array of classes, activities and program which fulfill our mission – to provide quality services to our membership, our Jewish community, and the community-at-large.

You can count on the JCC to provide you with opportunities for physical, emotional, spiritual, and intellectual growth. Take the time to read through the program insert to see the wonderful programs we offer. Whether it's your mind, body or your social circle you prefer to stretch, there is something for everyone at the JCC.

Join us throughout the year at our special events such as the fabulous children's play "Free to be You and Me!" and the 10th Annual David Silverman Basketball Tournament. A fun time is guaranteed as your help strengthens the JCC.

May the New Year bring you and your families peace, health and happiness!

L'shana Tova!
Bruce Landgarten

Newcomers are given the opportunity to join both the JCC and one of the Shalom Park synagogues (Temple Israel or Temple Beth El) for one, reduced first year fee. Please contact the Membership office for eligibility and other information.

JCC Scholarship

It is the philosophy of the JCC that no one is ever denied membership because of an inability to pay the membership dues. If there are special circumstances that require adjustments and/or special assistance, please contact the Membership Services Director and request a confidential interview.

Kashrut Policy

Kashrut is the Jewish dietary laws. They represent the both the rationale and the laws regarding what traditional Jews are and are not permitted to eat. The JCC of Charlotte is a Kosher facility and abides by the traditional laws of Kashrut. This provides an environment that can be supported by the broad spectrum of Jewish lifestyles in our community and that is comfortable for all participants. Members and guests should respect the dietary laws of Kashrut and be observant when attending or planning meetings and programs.
