Building Our Reputation With Your Satisfaction

Production of Donald Margulies' "Collected Stories" at Theater Charlotte in October

Collected Stories is the tale of two women. Ruth Steiner - a respected short-story writer and teacher in her mid-fifties, and Lisa Morrison - a naive but talented 26-year-old graduate student and aspiring writer. The story eavesdrops on Ruth and Lisa as their relationship evolves from mentor/protégée to loving friends to unintended rivals. Collected Stories is an intelligent, elegant, and passionate exploration of how we navigate relationships, define our careers, and cultivate our creativity.

The play will be presented on October 1, 2, 8, 9, 15, 16, 23 at 8:00 PM and October 2, 3, 9, 10, 16, 17, 23 at 3:00 PM at Theatre Charlotte, 501 Queens Road.

The play is produced by Douglas Welton.

For reservations, call 704-334-9128. Tickets will go on sale beginning September 13 for $22-$25. There are student and senior discounts available, as well as group discounts for parties of ten or more.

Poetry Performances

The audience is invited to join us each evening before the show at 7:30 for a reading of the poetry of Delmore Schwartz. Schwartz's life and his poetry play a catalytic role in changing the way that Ruth and Lisa relate to one another during the course of the play.

A special reading of Delmore Schwartz's poetry will take place at the Levine-Sklut Judaic Library and Resource Center in October. Please see next month's Charlotte Jewish News for more information. ☆
