

JEWISH FEDERATION NEWS

The Jewish Federation is pleased to announce Cary Bernstein and Alan Kronovet as the 2009 Annual Giving Co-Chairs.

While the 2009 Annual Campaign faces economic challenges, it also affords unique opportunities to make a real difference in the lives of the people impacted by Federation. The Jewish Federation is committed, now more than ever, to work diligently to meet the increased needs of our community. "The Annual Campaign is our best and greatest hope to make a real difference in the lives of those hardest hit by these difficult economic times. We look to the generosity and compassion of this extraordinary community to help meet the needs and lessen the hardship," remarked Sue Worrel, Federation Executive Director. "We are excited about the opportunity to chair the 2009 Annual Campaign," said Cary and Alan. "We are confident that working together with this dynamic and committed group of individuals, we will achieve our fundraising goals."

The Federation wishes to thank these dedicated individuals for graciously and conscientiously agreeing to serve on the Campaign Cabinet. Despite the challenging fundraising climate, the members of the 2009 Campaign Cabinet are committed to doing whatever it takes to insure that the needs of Jews in Charlotte, in Israel and around the world will be met.

As in years past, it is only with your loyal and generous support that the Jewish Federation of Greater Charlotte can succeed in its mission to ensure that Jewish values, goals and traditions continue to thrive. We appreciate and applaud your continued support!

LIVE GENEROUSLY. It does a world of good! ☆
