

Are You Being Hurt by Someone You Love?

It is estimated that 15-20% of Jewish women are abused. Reform. Orthodox. Conservative. Reconstructionist. You, or someone you know, are one of these women.

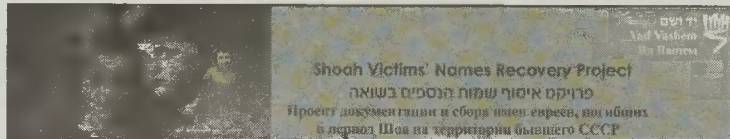

In our Jewish community, there is help. A support group, just for Jewish women. Strictly confidential, free, and safe, it is facilitated by volunteer, professional counselors. Contact Carol at 704-609-3120.

This service is offered by Shalom Bayit-NC, an all-volunteer group working to end domestic abuse in our Jewish community. Contact them at info@shalombayit.org or www.shalombayit-nc.org. ☆

October was Domestic Violence Awareness Month and the Levine-Sklut Judaic Library and Resource Center featured a special exhibit on domestic abuse in the Jewish community. Coordinated by Shalom Bayit of North Carolina, the Library initiative was overseen by Director Amalia Warshenbrot (pictured above).

Let No Holocaust Victim be Forgotten

Since 1955 Yad Vashem has worked to memorialize every individual Jew who perished in the Holocaust by collecting the ultimate representation of their identities: their names. You can participate in this historic task by competing "Pages of Testimony" as an act of personal commemoration. Pages of Testimony are preserved in the Hall of Names at Yad Vashem, Jerusalem and are also incorporated into the Central Database of Shoah Victims' Names.

To date, half of the six million have been recorded in the Names Database (www.yadvashem.org) where one may access their brief histories and, when available, their photographs, as well as submit additional names online.

Millions more victims may be forgotten forever, unless we recover their names today. You can ensure their place in history by filling out Pages of Testimony, or by assisting others with this vital and urgent task.

Help Recover Their Names Today

If you know of individuals from your family or ancestral community who perished in the Holocaust, submit unrecorded names on Pages of Testimony, which are available either online, by fax (972-2-644-3579), or email: central.database@yadvashem.org.

The local Names Recovery Project effort is spearheaded by Allen B. Saxe, 704-333-9106. Please call him for more information.

Million more will remain unknown unless we submit their details today. ☆
