

Ohr HaTorah Launches Building Campaign with New Website

Lubavitch of North Carolina will be announcing a building campaign to expand its existing campus on Sardis Road which houses its synagogue – Ohr HaTorah and the Jewish Preschool on Sardis. The announcement for the new building campaign will be made at the Sunday, December 5, at the 30th anniversary event in the NASCAR Hall of Fame.

The new 14,000 square foot building addition is a triumph of multi-purpose planning and multi-function use, facilitating a shared space that benefits both the Pre-School and the Synagogue. This versatile new building will house a Pre-School assembly hall and indoor activity playground; a Sanctuary for Ohr Ha Torah; a shared social hall with flexible seating arrangements; a library; a new kitchen for catered functions and various conference rooms.

A new website has been created to allow donors to learn more about the new and expanded building which will also contain a new library and learning center with additional classrooms and meeting space.

The theme of the campaign is “It’s time for a raise” as the synagogue and preschool are quickly outgrowing its current space and the need to expand is vital in order to accommodate the demand. You can visit the site at www.itstime-foraraise.com.

The building addition will feature a multi level library in the shape of a tower to emphasize that this new facility building will serve as a beacon of light to the Jewish community. This goes well with the name of the synagogue – Ohr HaTorah which means the light of Torah.
