

CAROLINA CENTER for JEWISH STUDIES

celebrating TEN YEARS

The Carolina Center for Jewish Studies is celebrating its tenth anniversary by offering a new undergraduate degree in Jewish Studies and a new certificate in Jewish Studies for graduate students, and launching the University's new Capstone Course in Jewish Studies, an upper-level research seminar for advanced undergraduates in the field.

The Center is also offering an expanded events program to provide exciting opportunities to the community that has supported us throughout these ten years. In addition to the usual schedule of community and academic lectures and the Uhlman Family continuing education seminar, we are also hosting a variety of special events to celebrate our anniversary. We hope you will join us.

Visit ccjs.unc.edu to learn more about our programs and our events, and to discover how you can help shape the Center's next ten years.
