

How Well Do You Know Our New Shlichah, Adi Rodvasky?

Have you met our new Shlichah, Adi Rodvasky? Do you want to get to know her better? We have the perfect opportunities for you to do just that. The Levine-Sklut Judaic Library will be hosting four "Sicha with the Shlichah" events throughout the next few months, which are open to the entire community. In addition to the meet and greet opportunities that are upcoming, we are also excited to announce that Adi will be teaching a Florence Melton Adult Education Class in January 2015.

Adi Rodvasky

"Sicha with the Shlichah" is scheduled for four dates in the upcoming months. These events will allow everyone in the community the opportunity to meet Adi and get to know her. There will be doughnuts and coffee to keep you warm and full and you can ask her about current events or anything else you'd like to know. Mark your calendars now so you are sure to make it. The dates are November 13, December 11, January 8, and February 5 at 11 AM.

Additionally, Adi is very excited to be the library's newest addition to the teaching lineup for our adult education program which is part of the Florence Melton School of Adult Jewish Learning. Adi will be teaching "Israeli Lit - A Window Into Israeli Society." The class will begin in January. Please contact our Melton Coordinator, Marci Goldberg, at melton@shalom-charlotte.org or 704-944-6740 for more information. ✨

Levine-Sklut Jewish Library and Charlotte Jewish Film Festival Go to the Movies This Fall

In an exciting partnership the Levine-Sklut Judaic Library and the Charlotte Jewish Film Festival will be presenting Fall Flicks. Fall Flicks is the newest addition to the CJFF and will feature three films with exciting programs to enhance the films. The three movies will all be shown in November. The first selection will be on Sunday, November 2 at 11 AM at the Ballantyne Village Theatre. The film being shown is Sturgeon Queens. Prior to the film there will be brunch. The second film will be shown on November 9 at 4 PM in Lerner. The film is Numbered, which features a glimpse into the lives of Holocaust survivors today. This film is being shown on the anniversary of Kristallnacht, making this movie a fitting choice to mark the day. Following the film, survivor, Zev Harel, will speak about his experiences. The third film, Brave Miss World, will be shown on November 16 at 7 PM in Lerner. This film follows Linor Abargil's journey after she was brutally raped six weeks before she was crowned Miss World. Following the film there will be a panel discussion to increase awareness of resources that are present in this region regarding these situations. For more information please visit charlottejewishfilm.com. ✨
