

n

For Impressive Coffee Tables

Eye to Eye: Portraits of Lesbians.

A gentle, loving photographic essay of lesbian women by JEB. $8.95

For the Record. Picture after picture of famous feminist musicians. Compiled by Olivia Records. $12.95

The Gay Book of Days. A must for every coffee table that tells who is, was and should have been gay. An entry for every day of the year. $17.95

The Gay/Lesbian Almanac. The finest compilation of American gay/lesbian documentia from the earliest colonies to the present. By Jonathan Katz, who authored Gay American History. $16.95

L'Amour Bleu. A magnificent book from Rizzoli, the art book publishers, of actual gay male erotic art through the ages, with commentary on the art and the artists by Cecile Beurdeley. Many, many color reproductions. $35

Minor White: Lives I Never Lived. Photography buffs will dote on this loving tribute to one of America's finest interpreters of male photography. $16.95

Yantras of Womanlove. Famed photographer Tee Corinne's masterpiece of lesbian erotic art based on photos of lesbian lovemaking. $6.95

Stocking Stuffers

Gift Certificates. Buy as many as you like at $10.

The Boy Who Picked The Bullets Up. One of 1982's biggest best sellers. It's about a gay medic in Vietnam. $3.50.

Cum. The fourth in Ross McDonald's continuing collection of highly erotic missives from the readers of "Straight To Hell" magazine. Each of the series features true sexual encounters. $12. Others available: Meat, $10; Sex, $12.

Gay Comix. Really, darling. We do have our own color illustrated comic books. They're becoming collectibles. No. 1 $1.50; No. 2 $2.00; and No. 3 $2.00

The Front Runner. For friends who have yet to read the gay classics. $2.95

Pleasures: The Secret Garden of Sexual Love Between Women. Odette's high erotica that rouses lesbian passion to a fever pitch. $2.25

Size Queen & Other Poems. West Coast poet Dennis Kelly almost writes up to the Audrey Beardsley-like quality of the illustrations. $5.95

Classically Yours

The Autobiography of Alice B. Toklas. Gertrude Stein penned this one after she and Alice had been lovers for over 25 years. Still one of the richest, wittiest, most irrevocable biographies anywhere. $3.95

The Black Man and The Cabin Boy. This one really goes back — to the 19th Century. About an ex-slave Brazilian navyman and his young white lover. $7.95

The City and The Pillar. One of the earliest modern gay works. Gore Vidal rewrote this edition for a happier ending. $2.25

Dancer From The Dance. This is THE gay classic, written just five years ago. $2.95

Desert of the Heart. Jane Rule's earliest groundbreaking novel, written in 1964. A milestone lesbian book. $3.95

Giovanni's Room. James Baldwin's remarkable, beautiful

Mother Wit: A Feminist Guide to Psychic Development.

Psychotherapist adapts material from the occult and Eastern religion traditions to wimmin's needs today. $7.95

The Spiral Dance: A Rebirth of the Ancient Religion of the Great Goddess. Starhawk's informative, poetic overview of modern witchcraft. $7.95

Surpassing the Love of Men. Lillian Faderman's massive review of the cultural history of women's passionate friendships from the Renaissance to the present. $10.95

Psychologically Speaking

Homosexuality in Perspective. Results of the outstanding Masters and Johnson study of gay men's sexual responses. $5.95

I Thought People Like That Killed Themselves: Lesbians, Gay Men and Suicide. Highly readable landmark study released in early say the Bible says being gay just isn't right. $6.95

Gays Under Grace. Want to argue with the Religious Right? Read this first and you'll throw their claims back in their faces. $15.95

Getting To The Shop

From South Boulevard, turn east onto East Boulevard. We're in the last house on the left at the end of the second block.

From I-85, take I-77 south, take the West Boulevard exit (last exit in a long side-ramp that also provides ramps to West Independence Boulevard and Highway 74 West), turn left onto West Boulevard, cross South Boulevard at the Kentucky Fried Chicken (which will be on your left), and we're in the last house on the left at the end of the second block.

From I-77 South, take the Remount Road exit, turn right at the end of the ramp, go to South Boulevard and turn left, find the Kentucky Fried Chicken (it'll be on your left) and turn right onto East Boulevard. We're in the last house on the left at the end of the second block.

From Independence Boulevard (U.S. 74) east of downtown, turn south at McDowell Street (the Sheraton is at the intersection), turn right at the first light onto Morehead, turn left at the next light onto Euclid, turn right at the next light onto East Boulevard and the shop is in the very first house on the right.

Friends of Dorothy is in the upstairs left apartment of that two-story brick house with black shingles at the corner of Euclid and East. Josh's Restaurant is a block and a half west, other side of the street. A convenience store, the Little Pantry, is directly across the street. Right next door is a yellow house called the Magic Maze. Three doors west, same side of the street, is Eli's Restaurant.

The only sign identifying the shop is a small white sign on the upstairs porch, hard to see because it's attached to one of the columns supporting the roof.

Now that you know how to find us, come peruse our inventory of more than 500 gay and lesbian book titles. Our immediate goal: to become the best-stocked gay/lesbian bookshop in the Southeast.

LESBIAN CRAFTS DAY SUNDAY, DEC. 11, 1-5 p.m.

Earrings, pendants, leather plaques, notions boxes, many other items. Great woman-centered selection for holiday gifts. Come browse and enjoy refreshments. Also: WOMEN'S MUSIC SALE: many records half-price.

work from the early '60s. $1.95
Leaves of Grass. by Walt Whitman. No gay male has ever written more powerful poetry than this Civil War male nurse who loved men electrically — and wrote about it. $2.50

Quatrefoil. One of the earliest modern gay novels that didn't end in suicide or death. About two career Navy men who manage to hide their love for each other. $6.95

Rubyfruit Jungle. by Rita Mae Brown. The book that made her a household name not only in lesbian households, but many others, too. $3.50

The Well of Loneliness. Radclyffe Hall's autobiographical 1928 novel that was banned in Britain. $3.95

For Lesbian Theorists

Gyn/Ecology. Mary Daly leads readers beyond the patriarchy and its tortures to "the ecstatic process of women's own unfolding/becoming." $7.95

Lesbian Nation: The Feminist Solution. Jill Johnston's moving, witty, personal journey into archdykedom. $5.95

1983 brings to light the historical and political sickness at the root of homophobic stigmatization. $7.95

Man to Man: Gay Couples in America. Charles Silverstein's book about love relationships of gay men — possibly the best book ever written on the subject. $7.50

The Mendola Report: A New Look At Gay Couples. Questionnaires returned by 400 people ranging from lesbian grandmothers to rural gays were the basis for this book. $6.95

For Parents, Preachers And Other Christians

Christianity, Social Tolerance and Homosexuality. Yale history professor John Boswell's meticulously researched and written book that examines why gay men and lesbians are so maligned these days. $9.95

Is The Homosexual My Neighbor? The best book to give to folks who

Friends of Dorothy Bookshop
331 East Boulevard, Charlotte 28203
704/332-8893