

H I D E - A - W A Y

405 Baskins Rd. Rock Hill, SC (803) 328-6630

Come Party Where the Party Never Ends

- February
Fri., 9th - AIDS Benefit - Live Dance Show
 Interested tap and jazz dancers, please contact Alicia Anderson at (803) 328-6630 by Monday, February 5, 1990.
- Sat., 10th - The Alicia Anderson Show.
- Wed., 14th - Come join us for the Hide-A-Way's 2nd Annual Valentine's Ball
 Hors d'oeuvres Cocktail Specials
 Dancing Good Times
 11:00 p.m. Gay Wedding Ceremony of Vickie Bailey and Micki Strickland.
 1:00 a.m. Showtime
- Thurs., 15th - Miss Hide-A-Way, Anjelica Bauer, Trixie Knight and Stephanie Monroe
- Fri., 16th - Miss Winston-Salem, USA, Shanna Nicole, Ginger St. James and Kristen Andrews
- Thurs., 22nd - The Legendary Boom Boom La Tour, Shelia Du Rante, and Brittany Michaels
- Fri., 23rd - Christina Allen, Deana Nicole and Stephen Matthews
- March
Thurs., 1st - Miss Winston-Salem, USA, Shanna Nicole, Ginger St. James and Kristen Andrews
- Fri., 2nd - Sabrina Starr, Jackie Jade and Leigh Morgan
- Thurs., 8th - The Eminent Tina Terrell, Trixie Knight, Anjelica Bauer
- Fri., 9th - Miss Hide-A-Way, Anjelica Bauer, holds her showcase.

Coming Friday, March 23rd
Alicia Anderson holds her birthday and anniversary show!

On Thursday nights, the Hide-A-Way is featuring cocktail specials and 25¢ Draft Beer from 9:00-11:00pm
and Free Hotdogs

Starting Thursday, February 15th, Thursday nights will also be show night, with shows starting at midnight.

The Hide-A-Way Staff would like to say thank you for making
The Hide-A-Way a success its first year.

From Deep in the "Heart" of Texas

Scorpio Presents For All Its Sweethearts
Headliners of Texas
Friday, February 16th

We Deliver!*Frank Denies Allegations In Upcoming Penthouse article

BOSTON (UPI) — Rep. Barney Frank, D-Mass., called statements made by a former male prostitute to Penthouse magazine "total invention" and indicated he already has testified in secret about their relationship before the House Ethics Committee, a published report said Wednesday.

The Boston Herald, which obtained an advance copy of the interview with Stephen Gobie to be published in the March issue of Penthouse, said the article contained no bombshell revelations but detailed several aspects of their relationship, including their first sexual encounter in 1985.

According to the Herald, Gobie says in the Penthouse article that Frank:

- daydreamed about being a paid male escort and said, "If I'd been 20 years younger, I would have liked to have tried hustling";
- expressed an interest in group sex with a "threesome, foursome, or more-some";
- declined to get an AIDS test because he did not want to be put in a moral dilemma.

"He was hung up on me, but I couldn't reciprocate emotionally," Gobie said.

"I was doing a lot of good things for Barney besides sex. I built him up. He wasn't as nice before he met me. He was mean and arrogant. He got liposuction after we met. He felt better and looked better," Gobie said in the article.

Asked for comment by the Herald, Frank said Gobie's allegations were "total invention."

"It's absolute lies, degrading and untrue," Frank said. "It's a word I hate to use in this context, but (the article) appears to be anti-climatic."

Frank apparently has already testified before the ethics panel in Secret. He said, "I wouldn't disagree with you" when a Herald reporter said he assumed the five-term congressman had already testified.

Frank has admitted paying Gobie $80 for sex in 1985 after answering an advertisement in a Washington newspaper for homosexuals. The Congressman said he then hired Gobie as his personal assistant, paying him $20,000 annually out of his own pocket.

Frank said he did not violate House ethics rules and fired Gobie in 1987 after learning the man was using the congressman's Capitol Hill apartment for prostitution activities.

Gobie said Frank was aware all along about the prostitution activities.

The Herald said Gobie, whose record includes drug and child pornography convictions, reportedly was paid $50,000 for the Penthouse interview and noted "Gobie's credibility and motives have been seriously questioned."

Gobie appeared before the ethics committee last month and told reporters, "I came to praise Congressman Frank, not to bury him."

The Penthouse article, to be published next month, does not name any other gay politicians, the Herald said.

In the Penthouse interview, Gobie said Frank had not had sex with other members of Congress.

"I asked Barney, 'Have you ever done it with another congressman?' And he said, 'Certainly not. They don't want each other, someone who looks like them. They want someone who looks like Tom Cruise,'" Gobie said.

Gobie also said Frank made admiring remarks about fellow Massachusetts Congressman Joseph Kennedy's physique, an allegation Frank denied to the Herald.

Lutheran Leader Denounces Scheduled Ordination of Homosexuals

By David E. Anderson
 UPI Religion Writer

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Friday, Jan. 19. The head of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America criticized a planned ordination of three homosexuals to the ministry and said disciplinary action will be taken against the two San Francisco congregations calling them.

Bishop Herbert Chilstrom said the denomination "believes and teaches" that the church is to be in ministry with all people, including homosexuals.

But, he said, the church also "has standards for ordained ministers" and "among them is a provision which states that practicing homosexual persons may not be on the roster of ordained ministers of this church."

"The issue of homosexuality is one where there is genuine difference of opinion in the ELCA," he added. "The immediate incident underscores this reality. It is our hope that rather than be divided we will give more careful thought and study to this question."

He criticized the planned ordination of the three — Jeff Johnson, Ruth Frost and Phyllis Zillhart, all graduates of Lutheran seminaries — which is scheduled to take place Saturday afternoon in San Francisco. All three have graduated from Lutheran seminaries and been found qualified for ministry except for their refusal to pledge lifelong celibacy.

The Rev. Joseph Wagner, executive director of the denomination's Division for Ministry, said the ordinations will initiate "an unnecessary chain of events which will be painful to all concerned."

"It is unfortunate that these two congregations have chosen to engage the issue of ordination of practicing homosexual persons in this divisive way," Wagner said.

"Other avenues exist for dialogue and healthy confrontation in the church but they have not been chosen," he said.

Organizers of the irregular ordination service said a group of 30 Lutheran clergy will participate in the liturgy and the traditional laying on of hands and the Rev. Carter Heyward, a lesbian and one of the first women ordained to the priesthood of the Episcopal Church, will preach.

The three have been called — in defiance of church regulations — to be assistant ministers at two San Francisco congregations and will form a pastoral team for the recently initiated Lutheran Lesbian and Gay Ministry in the Bay area.

The constitution of the 5.3-million-member ELCA states that pastoral calls can only go to those approved by the church and the three seminary graduates are not approved candidates because they have refused to pledge obedience to recently formulated celibacy guidelines for homosexuals.

Wagner disputed the claims of those supporting the ordination that the issues was "justice" for homosexual persons.

"We do not agree," he said. "The church champions the civil rights of all persons. But ordination is not a civil right; it is a privilege granted by the church to those who meet its established standards."

Bishop Lyle Miller of the Sierra Pacific Synod said he will initiate the disciplinary procedures, which could result in their expulsion from the denomination. "There is an appropriate time for confrontation, but in my opinion this is not one of them."

Help WantedManager*Needed For*N.C.'s Largest*Gay Club*Call Owner*at*(919) 762-9467*(919) 343-1000