G/L Film Series begins 4th season

CHARLOTTE—The Charlotte Gay & Lesbian Film Series, entering its fourth year this month, announced its 1994 line-up. The six presentations in this year's schedule represent the best in gay and lesbian films of the year. This series will bring to the Carolinas the rave films that are presently showing to packed houses in New York, San Francisco and Los Angeles. The 1994 series will run for six months and screenings will be held at the Spirit Square Center for the Arts, the Mint Museum of Art and the Park Terrace Theater.

The season opens on Friday, January 21, with this year's smash hit from the San Francisco Lesbian and Gay Film Festival, Being at Home with Claude. This suspense thriller will leave audiences moved from the racing, pounding opening to the poignant conclusion. This screening will be at 11:00 PM at the Park Terrace Theater.

The 1994 season will offer a diverse variety of films that include both gay and lesbian feature films as well as shorts, narratives and documentaries by American and foreign filmmakers. This year's series presents films that offer serious social examination, silly fun and sensual eroticism.

Season tickets are $23.00 and are available at Rising Moon Books & Beyond in Charlotte or by mailing a check to: G&L Film Series, 428 East Park Ave., Charlotte, NC 28203. Tickets at the door are $5 and will be available on a first-come/first-serve basis.

The Building Bridges Subcommittee of the Charlotte Local Organizing Committee for the June 1994 Gay Pride Weekend is seeking members of the NC gay and lesbian community to speak before civic organizations, church groups and businesses. The Subcommittee is currently searching for speaking opportunities as a means of raising awareness about the Weekend, and they need your help. If you are comfortable speaking in front of large groups and would like to represent the gay and lesbian community, contact Building Bridges co-chair Chuck Turner at (704) 841-8219.

Even before Gay Games IV has occurred, The Federation of Gay Games has announced that Amsterdam, The Netherlands will be the site of Gay Games V in 1998. Bids to host the event were received from Amsterdam, Atlanta and Sydney, and the '98 Games mark the first time they will be held off the North American continent. The Federation has also extended the deadline for nominations for the Tom Waddell Award to April 1, 1994. Dr. Tom Waddell was the founder of the Gay Games and nominees should be people who have volunteerism that captures the spirit of the games. Nominations and requests for nomination forms should be directed to The Federation Awards Committee, 584 Castro St., Suite 343, San Francisco, CA 94114.

C-SUN, Carolina Social Unity Network, based in Charlotte, has announced a change in membership fees. Beginning immediately, dues are $6 per person for six months or $10 per person for one year. C-SUN began eight months ago as an alternative to the bars, an opportunity to meet people in a social setting. For more information, write C-SUN, PO Box 18576, Charlotte, NC 28218, or call Jeff (704) 532-7940 or Sharyl (704) 531-2541.

Billed as "Film Festival Favorites," Water Bearer Films is now offering The Blue Hour and Last Call At Maud's on video, each with a retail of $39.95. The Blue Hour is a subtitled German film about a male prostitute who sleeps with the woman next door. Last Call At Maud's is a look at the life and times of the world's longest running lesbian bar, Maud's in San Francisco. Both are available at most gay/lesbian bookstores or can be ordered direct from Water Bearer Films, 205 West End Ave., Suite 24-H, New York, NY 10023; (212) 580-8185.
