The Giving Season

Local gay party planning company and friends give back during the holidays

Charlotte party production company Just Twirl knows how to have a good time. For the past three years they've been dazzling Charlotte's gay nightlife scene with unique parties ranging from Memorial Day Weekend-long extravaganzas to one-night get-downs with military, racing and Hollywood themes.

"Life may not be the party that we hoped for, but while we're here, we should dance," is their motto. "We should also give back," adds company co-owner Zuni Johnson.

This year's Just Twirl Christmas party, Twirl to the World, was the third time the company geared up for the holidays with a special celebration meant to do just that. From gifts for needy to children and housing and heat for the poor, Twirl to the World and those who attended the event with donations in-hand have made a real difference.
