MR. BUCHANAN ON SLAVERY. The Richmond Enquirer has an extended

nalysis of Mr. Buchanan's decord on this subject, giving references to his votes and acts. It is too long for our columns. The following recapitulation may, however, be republished, as clearly exhibited:

In private as well as in public, Mr. Buchanan has always stood on the side of the South. The citizen and the statesman are one and the same individual. He supported the rights of the South when in office : he vindicated and maintained those rights when out of office. He not only voted for all measures of justice to the South, but he endeav ored to carry them into effect. His is not a dead record of votes, but a living record of acts, which vindicate the honesty of the votes. Thus, Mr. Buchanan exhorted the North to aithful and cheerful fulfilment of the obligations of the Fugitive Slave Law. He protested against the probibition of the jails in Pennsylvania to federal officers for the confinement of captured slaves. He denounced the Wilmot Proviso. He approved the Clayton Compromise of 1847. Aud, to sum up in a single sentence, he has at all times and in all places exerted the authority of his high character and great talents to uphold the Union, defend the Constitution and protect the South.

To recapitalate:

1. In 1836, Mr. Buchanan supported bill to prohibit the circulation of Abolition papers through the mails.

2. In the same year he proposed and voted for the admission of Arkansas.

3. In 1836-'7, he denounced, and voted to reject petitions for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia.

4. In 1837, he voted for Mr. Calhoun's famous Resolutions, defining the rights of the States and the limits of Federal authority, and affirming it to be the duty of the government to protect and uphold the institutions of the

5. In 1838-'6 and '40, he invariably voted with Southern Senators against the consideration of anti-slave rv petitions.

6. In 1844-'5, he advocated and voted for the annexation of Texas. 7. In 1847, he sustained the Clayton Com prom se.

8. In 1850, he proposed and urged the extension of the Misseuri Compromise to the Pacific Ocean.

9. But, he promptly acquie seed in the Compromise of '50, and employed all his influence in favor of the faithful execution of the Fugitive Slave Law.

10. In 1851, he remonstrated against an enactment of the Pennsylvania legislature for obstructing the arrest and return of fugitive

11. In 1854, he negotiated for the acquisition of Cuba.

12. In 1856, he approves the repeal of the Missouri restriction, and supports the principles of the Kansas Nebrsska Act. 13. He never gave a vote against the interests of slavery, and never uttered a word

The prominent facts of Mr. Buchanan's record touching slavery are thus grouped into a single view; so that the person of the least patience in research, may ascertain at a glance how the Democratic candidate stands in respect to the great issue of the canvass .-In this succinct statement, we give not des bring the whole history of a long life, to bear shown to be exempt from just reproach and proper position, in advance of any and every statesman of the North, in the confidence and affection of the people of the South. He demands not a mere recognition of his attach ment to the constitution, but unbounded applause for such service in the interest of the South as no other man can boast. Against the captious criticism of a desperate adversary, refining upon technical distinctions and skulking among quibbles, the Democracy oppose this incontestible attestation of their candidate's fidelity.

MR. BROOKS.

The victory of yesterday, in the House hall, is with Preston S. Brooks, whose speech on the occasion is denied to be read by milions. As terrible as that was upon those who had been dealing with the grave question of law and right only to make out of it partisan capital at the expense of every manly and correct sentiment-and his exposure of that purpose on the part of many of his assailants caused a very general and visible blanching of cheeks on the part of his bearing and the power of his reasoning eclipsed it. He made it perfectly plain that the majority had voted to expel him only for political effect; overstepping the bounds of their authority, and siding and abetting dastardly conduct on the part of some, only to the end of compassing a political result foreign to him they sought to

We hear that, anticipating this result, he placed his resignation of his seat in the House some days ago in the hands of friends, to be transmitted to the Governor of South Carolina on the instant the telegraph carries thither information of what accurred yesterday in the House. The election to supply the vacancy thus created will take place in the course of next week. We predict for him a re-election without a dissenting vote, and a triumphant progress on his return to South Carolina, whither we presume he will wend his way to-day. He does but his duty to himself and his constituents in appealing tothem from the partisan judgment of the House. Their action upon the question of his re-election will open the eves of those of the North who are cheating themselves into the belief that they may go on with the work of aboli tionizing the Government without stirring up a feeling and determination in the action of northern public; - Washington Star.

WEBSTER WHIGS FOR BUCHANAN. Among the old line Whigs in Boston, says the Times, who have declared for Buchanan, are Col. N. A. Thompson, Otis Kimball, John II. Eastburn, Peter Harvey, (the fast friend of Webster,) Harry Horton, Col. Jno. C. Boyd, Col. J. Putnam Bradlee, Capt. Elw'd Young, Seth Sprague, and other active and distinguished national men. From Maine, we hear of large accessions to the Democratic ranks from among the old line Whigsand so far from the apostacy of Hamlin and Morrill having any injurious effect upon the cause in the *old Pine Tree State, it has had the effect of stirring up our friends there to renewed efforts, which are sure to be reward-

The Pittsburg Union states the fact that Robert C. Walker, late a Whig member in the Legislature from Alleghany county, Pennsylvania, has taken the stump for Buchanan. In Connecticut, Henry P. Graves, son-in-law of Gov. Dutton, the Know Nothing Whig magistrate of the States, has come out against the Black Republicans, and announces his determination hereafter to vote with the Deed by a triumphant victory.

It was on Mr. Buchanan's motion, on the 11th of January, 1838, that the Senate of the United States adopted the following amendment to Mr. Clay's resolution, framed in language which we beleive was conceived by Mr. Buchanan himself; language which is the first we have been able to find anywhere express which could pain the most sensitive Southern | ing the very principle of the Utah clause, with the limitation restricting its application:

Yr. Buchanan the original author of the restrictive language of the non-intervention clause of the Utah and Kansas enactments. And Resolved, That any attempt of Congress to abolish slavery in any territory of the United States, in which it exists, would create serious alarm and just apprehension in the tached passages and insolated acts, but we States sustaining that domestic institution, would be a violation of good faith towards upon the popular mind with the irresistible the inhabitants of any such territories, who force of truth. This rapid retrospect discloses have been permitted to settle with, and hold a consistency and an efficiency of service to slaves therein; because the people of any the South, which flattery can claim for no such territory have not asked for the abolition other living man. Mr. Buchaman is not only of slavery therein, and because when any such vindicated from calumny; he is not simply territory shall be admitted into the Union as slavery of Norfolk accompanied with an a State, the people thereof will be entitled to worthy of confidence; he is promoted to his decide that question exclusively for themselves.

. The Mockery .- The recent Old Line Whig etts could tender him. He returned of State Convention for Maryland was simply a gathering of Know Nothings endowed with a plentiful allowance of "cheek." All its few members have been acting with the Know Nothings ever since the establishment of the order, voting for Know Nothing candidates. and defending the principles, measures and policy of that party. The real Old Line Whigs of the State were not represented there. Nor are they responsible for the action of any such Know Nothing assemblage of two-faced politicians. They will deceive none in Mary's land, where the fact that it was altogether a Know Nothing concern is universally understood; and very few indeed out of that State, where as yet that fact may not be so generally comprehended .- Washington Star.

A BONE FOR THE ABOLITIONS IST'S.

Messrs Rowland and Brothers, enterprising firm of this city, own a slave, James Willey by name, whom they por mitted some months since to take a trip to the North to see the curbosities. They not only gave him a permit to take pass age in the New York steamer from this place but also gave him the necessary funds to bear his expenses. He visited New York, Falmouth, Massachusetts, Fall River, New Bedford and sundry other abolition holes; while a Falmouth he called on one of the firm, who was visiting that place for recreation, and was tendered more funds if he needed them, which he refused, remaring he had enough to hear his expenses back to Norfolk. When Jun (for this is his familiar name) was in New Bedford he met several fugitives, whom he recognised as former slaves in Norfolk. They supposing he had runaway, received him with down cast looks and assured him that he had come to the wrong place, and semarking that they were "making out" very poorly having to labor very hard and get but poorly paid in return; they expressed strong reason to suspect that he had been great dissatifaction at the treatment they carried off by some of the Circus Comreceived at the hands of their abolition friends. Jun told them that he had not run away; that he was only du a visit, and would return to Norfolk in a few days. At several of these towns in Massichusetss his niessenger overtook the Circus Comhe was importuned by the Abolitionists to pany and found the negro in the employ to remain, assuring him that he was then a free man. He declined their kind offers and assured them that such freedom as a black man enjoyed with them had no charms for him; he vastly preferred the community cannot be too gnarded in proabundance of the necessities, ave, and comforts of life as he enjoyed then at home, to all the freedom that Massachushis own accord, and arrived here Satur. day morning in the steamer North Carolina having taken the sea fortento the North and the overland route (vis). Philadelphia and Baltimore) home. He is now at the store of the Messrs, R. &. B., and if any dissausfied darkey desires to see the misery and squalid poverty that await all negroes who make their escape to the North, he can be shown the picture before his reaches the reality, by calling on Jun. - [Nor folk Argus.

HE CAN'T GO IT!

The Ohio Statesman says that Duke Ward, Esq., an Old Line Whig, and formerly a member of the Legislature, is out for Ruchanan .- Mr. Ward, in a letter, says:

but I cannot go off a fier Niggerism or Know Nothingism, which have sucparty. It seems to me that now, no friend of the Constitution and the Union can find a place where he will be at home, except in the Democratic party. I shall give myself up to the campaign with ardor and with vigor The National Democratic party which goes for equal rights for all, is the only party now fit for the Constitutional men to act with.-'The flower of the Whig party are letting the world know this.

to the connection with the North Carolina Railroad on the President of the Charlotte company, which we learn is erroneous. The President Las always been willing to make a connection with that road, and to meet that road in a compromising spirit, but there is one difficulty which is kept up by that company, which prevents it. It is perfectly willing to have through tickets sold from Columbia to Goldsnoro, but un willing to sell them to Raleigh or Weldon, by the Raleigh and Gaston road, which is forty miles nearer to Weldon than by Goldsboro. This is done to force all passengers to go by Goldsboro, thus riding 40 miles further, management of the Road; and he called and paying $1 more. This should not be required.
