Shaver-Moore

Badin people were greatly interested in a wedding which occurred at St. John's Lutheran Church, in Salisbury, Wednesday afternoon, October 15, when Miss Pauline Shaver became the bride of Mr. Aiken Grady Moore. The bride's pastor performed the ceremony.

The chancel and altar were beautifully decorated with white roses, swansonias, ferns, and the soft light from the burning candles added a warmth to the scene and brought out the green and white color scheme most effectively.

The bridal party entered to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by the church organist. The bridesmaid, Miss Kathleen Erwin, from Brevard, N. C. came first. She was attractive in a very pretty turquoise blue georgette dress, with black picture hat, and carried William roses. The bride entered on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She was lovely in a traveling suit of tinsel colored duvets with accessories to match; and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lillies-of-the-valley. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Herman Aiken.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride and groom left for Little Switzerland, to spend their honeymoon. They will be at home at 55 Boyden Street after December 1.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Moore are well known in Badin, and they will receive a hearty welcome here. The whole community joins in wishing them a long and happy life.

SHE'S A GOOD FISHERMAN

Virginia and Virgin Butner, twins, thirteen years old, children of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Butner, of Nantahala Avenue. They went fishing Saturday morning, October 11, and in a little while caught that fine string of carp and bass. Virginia got most of them, but Virgin is doing his part by carrying the heavy bunch, and holding them up for the editor to snap them. Does he like that as much as catching 'em? Note his expression for the answer.

Miss Ella C. Cogdell is just recovering from a sprained ankle; but it does not affect her walk any, if it did her sleep.
