

Soccer Team Defeats Duke in Opener, 3-0

The Cloudbuster varsity soccer team opened its season last Wednesday with a 3-0 win over a hard-playing Duke University squad.

Navy scored late in the first half when Left Wing H. L. Thompson scored on a low, curving shot from about 25 feet out. Late in the second half Thompson again tallied with a long shot to the high corner of the visitor's goal. This time Thompson's shot was from a difficult angle, but the aim was deadly accurate. In the meantime Jack Fletcher had scored a penalty shot with a belting low kick that was too fast for the Duke goalie.

The game was played on a very muddy field which made polished ball-handling and teamwork very difficult; nevertheless the Cloudbusters gave occasional exhibitions of excellent ball handling.

On Saturday, Oct. 24, at Chapel Hill, the Cloudbusters soccer team will meet High Point College, which has also administered a 3-0 defeat to Duke.

SMOKER

Harry McKee, of Short Hills, N. J., who began to learn his bag of Blackstone tricks at the early age of nine. From start to finish, McKee amused and fooled his watchful onlookers with a select repertoire of deceptions, which included the usual card, cigarette, laundry check, and handkerchief tricks, and others not so usual.

Making his second appearance before a Smoker audience, Cadet William J. P. O'Sullivan shared heavily in the plaudits, with his imitations and mimicry. The former New York cop climaxed his performance with a strip-tease imitation to the removing rhythm of "Take It Off."

University of North Carolina talent made its first appearance at a station Smoker, with John Feuchtenberger, the Southern Conference diving champion, performing on the trampoline. His form and coordination were well appreciated by the cadets who stumble through tumbling in their sports program. Comic tumbling was supplied by Ens. W. H. McCachren. Music for the night was furnished by Cadets Jack Williams, Robert Wand, and William Maxted taking turns at the piano, with Cadets Jim Harrington and William Price vocalizing, and with instrumental arrangements supplied by the popular Pre-Flight band, conducted by J. B. Parsons, Mus.2c, and by the Jive section under the leadership of M. L. Wall, Mus.2c.
