

Six Cadets Chalk Up Five New Intramural Marks in Rain

Vindicators, Wildcats, Buccaneers, Helldivers, Are Intramural Leaders

Five wins against one loss gave the Vindicator squadron top spot in the first week's play of the winter intramural sports program.

In pushball, wrestling, track and boxing the leaders went undefeated, and in soccer they won one and lost one.

Tied for second place with four wins and two losses were the Helldivers, Wildcats and Buccaneers.

All the squadrons, with the exception of the Mustangs who have no wins and six losses, won at least one event.

The standings as of Dec. 12:

SQUADRON	W	L	T	PTS.
Vindicator	5	1	0	5
Helldiver	4	2	0	4
Wildcat	4	2	0	4
Buccaneer	4	2	0	4
Devastator	3	2	1	3 1/2
Kingfisher	3	2	1	3 1/2
Buffalo	3	2	1	3 1/2
Mariner	3	3	0	3
Skyrocket	2	3	1	2 1/2
Coronado	2	4	0	2
Catalina	1	5	0	1
Mustang	0	6	0	0

Cadets reporting for their athletic competition will probably start watching the time a little closer in the future. Several showed up late one afternoon this week, and it resulted in their running around the obstacle course after the others had finished for the day. Furthermore, they were told they could come down on Saturday afternoon if it happened again.

Cloudbusters Lose Opening Game to Appalachian, 53-46

Until Cadet Center Howard McWilliams fouled out of the Navy Pre-Flight-Appalachian State Teachers College game here Wednesday afternoon, the local quintet were having things very much their own way. From that point on, though, things got worse, and the final score found the locals on the short end of a 53 to 46 score.

Early in the first period the Cloudbusters led, 15 to 5, but at halftime the visitors came within one point of tying up the ball game. Early in the second period Hawkins and Smawley made two snowbirds to give Appalachian a lead they never lost.

The all-cadet team showed signs of brilliance at times, but lack of capable reserves, bad passing, and teamwork left much to be desired. McWilliams was perhaps the outstanding performer, both on offense and defense. He scored 10 points during his short stay in the game, and took numerous balls off the opponents' backboard.

Warren Hawkins and Belus Smawley led the scoring for the winners with 16 and 13 points respectively. Captain Gus Broberg was top scorer for the Pre-Flighters with 13, followed by Masterson with 11.

Appalachian brought 15 men here for the game, but the five who started went the route, no substitutes being used.

Score at Half: Navy Pre-Flight 30; Appalachian 29.

Officials: Haak, University of Rochester; Hebel, Springfield.
