

Basketball

'Buster Quintet Tackles Norfolk Today at 1400

Norfolk's Naval Air Station quintet, one of the top service basketball teams in the South, will arrive in Chapel Hill this morning to engage the Cloudbusters this afternoon at 1400 in Woollen gym. The game is the first of three to be played by the local club during the next six days, Catawba College coming here on Wednesday and the highly touted Penn State club on Friday.

Not to be confused with the Norfolk Naval Training Station club is the team playing here this afternoon, although it might be well to add there is little difference in the calibre of the two clubs. The Naval Training Station outfit holds two victories over the Naval Air Station quintet, both of which were overtime tilts. The team playing here has defeated, among others, the strong Appalachian State Teachers College club which defeated the Cloudbusters earlier in the year, 53 to 46.

Outstanding for the visitors are Robert Carpenter, six foot, four inch center; Bennie Cunningham and Al Schrik, forwards; and Eddie Shokes and William Anderson, guards.

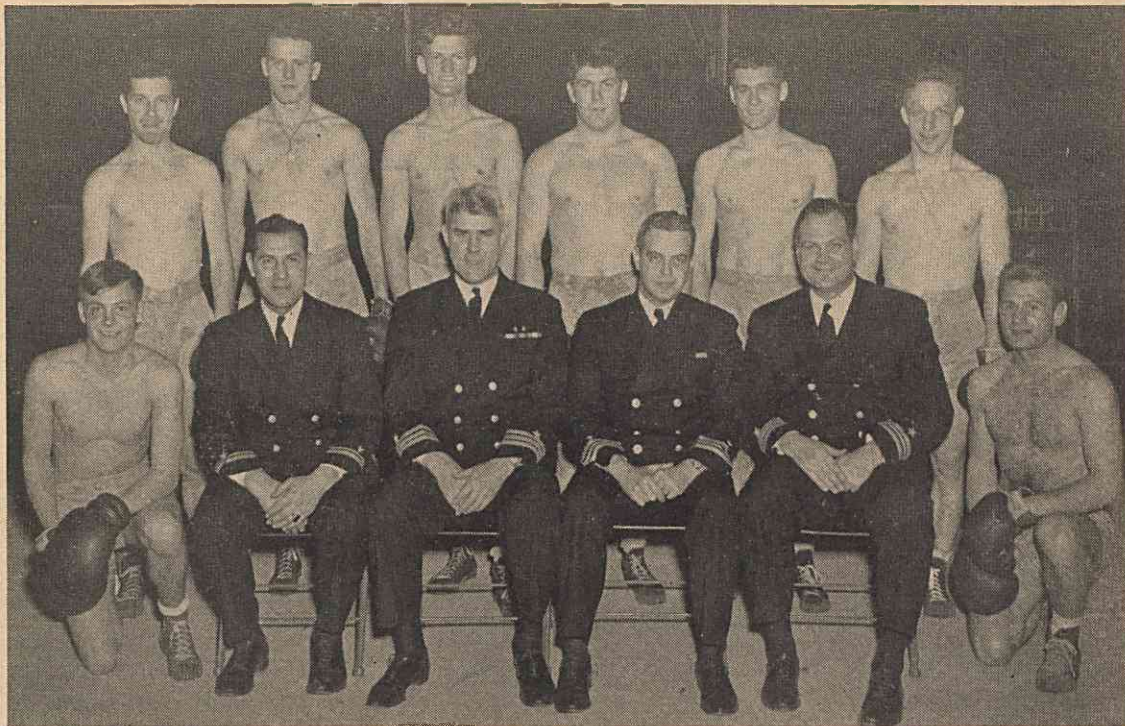

Carpenter made the all-conference team at East Texas for three years, and played professional basketball with Oshkosh (Wis.) All-Stars. He was an all-tournament selection in the world professional basketball tournament two years ago.

Starting for the Cloudbusters will be the usual quintet of Kraft and Caldwell at the forwards, Jones at center, and Hughes and Mott at the guards.

The only game played by the Cloudbusters this past week was against VPI on Monday afternoon. They lost, 44 to 40. Tied 23-23 at halftime, the locals opened the second half strong only to see the visitors tie up the ball game, and then go ahead to win. Paul Caldwell, forward, was high scorer for both teams with 16 points. Captain Jack Kraft played his usual fine defensive game besides scoring eight points.

Last Saturday the Cloudbusters trounced Wake Forest College, 60-31. Their season's record now stands at four victories and five defeats.

Pre-Flight Regimental Boxing Champs

NO WONDER they're smiling, these eight cadets pictured here with Lieut. (jg) Allie Wolff, USNR, head boxing coach; Comdr. John P. Graff, USN (Ret.), commanding officer, Lt. Comdr. James P. Raugh, USNR, executive officer, and Lt. Comdr. Harvey Harman, USNR, director of athletics. Last week they won the regimental boxing crowns of the Pre-Flight School. Standing, left to right: Francis Canning, Forest Hill, N. Y., 140-pound champ; Steve Bogue, Boston, Mass., 165; Henry Huson, Buffalo, N. Y., 175; Jack Williams, Llanerch, Pa., heavyweight; Raymond Jones, Philadelphia, 145; and Robert Bourdeau, Syracuse, N. Y., 151. Kneeling on the left is James Ankeney of Akron, O., 135, then after the four officers and to the right, kneeling, is Herbert Maroot, Verona, N. J., 158-pounder.

Wrestling

Hendershot Leads Navy Wrestlers To Easy 28-10 Victory Over Duke

Winning all but two bouts, Navy's Pre-Flight wrestlers defeated Duke here Wednesday afternoon, 28 to 10, before a crowd of 1,000 fans.

Fastest and most interesting bout on the card was that between Cadet J. W. Hendershot and W. Huffman, Duke's captain. Hendershot won, pinning Huffman in 2 minutes, 35 seconds of the first round. It was the second straight first round fall for Hendershot who pinned Appalachian's O'Connell last week in 35 seconds of the first round. He is undefeated here.

W. Richardson, who pinned Cadet L. C. Babine in 2 minutes, 6 seconds of the third round, and B. Smith, who pinned Cadet J. B. Mahan in 1 minute, 20 seconds of the second round, were the only Blue Devils to register a win.

Cadet L. M. McKeeby pinned Duke's Beamer in 2 minutes, 17 seconds of the third round in a bout that saw the two on even terms until McKeeby wore down the loser.

Acting captain of the Pre-

Officers' Basketball

Officers Open Play With 38-37 Win

Lt. (jg) Whitey Kendall's field goal from the side court in the last minute of play gave the Pre-Flight officers a 38-37 victory over North Carolina State Wednesday night in Raleigh.

It was the first game of the season for the officers, and broke a three game winning streak of the losers.

Lt. (jg) Kenneth Hashagen, former University of Pennsylvania—See OFFICERS WIN, page 4

Flighters—Cadet C. A. Dorn—found Smart of Duke a tough customer, but he pinned the Blue Devil in 2 minutes, 10 seconds of the third round to win five points for the winners.

Summaries:
121-pound class—Nist, Navy, pinned Stroup in 2 minutes, 32
See WRESTLING, page 4

Intramurals

Vindicators Still Hold Sports Lead

Although their combined sports record is best but in two sports—boxing and soccer—the Vindicators hold down first spot in the intramural sports standing with 35½ points.

Winners of the liberty award last week went to individual leaders in each sport. The Vindicators led in boxing and soccer, the Mariners and Catalinas tied for top spot in wrestling, the Buffaloes won in pushball, the Mariners in track, and the Kingfishers in basketball. This week's total liberty award will go to the squadron leading in total points.

The standings as of Jan. 23:

SQUADRON	W	L	T	Pts.
Vindicator	32	15	7	35½
Coronado	32	20	2	33
Kingfisher	29	19	6	32
Devastator	29	19	6	32
Wildcat	29	22	3	30½
Mariner	26	24	4	28
Skyrocket	25	27	2	26
Buffalo	22	26	6	25
Catalina	21	31	2	22
Helldiver	22	30	2	23
Buccaneer	19	32	4	21
Mustang	13	39	2	14