

Track

Navy to Sponsor Indoor Track Meet With University

Invitations have been mailed to 65 leading college track teams to compete in the Invitation Indoor Track Meet to be held here on Saturday afternoon and night, Feb. 27.

Sponsored jointly by the Navy Pre-Flight School and the University, the field will be open to teams from Army and Navy camps as well as to college clubs of the Southeast.

Carolina's Athletic Director R. A. Fetzer, who is in direct charge of the meet, has announced that the new Invitation Meet will take the place of the Southern Conference Indoor Games for this year.

Cadets who are interested in participating and who will be here on Feb. 27 should start working out for the following events as announced by Coach Fetzer: 60-yard dash; 70-yard low and high hurdles; 440, 880, mile, and two mile runs; high and broad jump; shot put; pole vault; one mile relay, and sprint medley relay.

More Basketball

Pill Rollers Lose To Communicators

The Communicators of the communication department defeated the well favored Pill Rollers of the medical department in a fast roaring basketball game on Wednesday evening by the unexpected score of 39 to 25.

The Communicators were on the short end of the score until the final period, but then their better physical condition enabled them to take a lead that was never overcome by the Pill Rollers.

This was the first game for the Communicators and they are very anxious to challenge any other department on the base.

The starting line-up follows:

Communicators		Pill Rollers
Mears	rg	Logan
Vernadakis	lg	Northcut
Miller	c	Carder
Richards	rf	Cook
Stuckey	lf	Rocky
Sub: Lennan

pinned Mahan in 1 minute, 20 seconds of second round.

175-pound class—Hendershot, Navy, pinned Huffman in 2 minutes, 35 seconds of first round.

Heavyweight class—McKeeby, Navy, pinned Beamer in 2 minutes, 17 seconds of third round.

Smoker Features Musical Varieties

Musical varieties entertained the regiment of cadets, officers, enlisted men and guests attending the station Smoker last Wednesday evening in Memorial Hall.

There was music by the Pre-Flight band, swing section and glee club. The "Quartone Girls" from Durham, appearing as guests of the swing band, provided the feature attraction of the evening with their lively offerings of popular and torchy tunes.

The show was staged under the direction of Bandleader J. B. Parsons. The swing band was led by M. L. Wall, Mus.1c, with W. H. Cole, Mus.1c, at the piano. As usual, the Smoker was emceed by Lieut. Roland Logan, USNR, who also pitched in as vocalist.

More Officers Detached For Del Monte School

Five officers were detached during the past week and transferred for duty at the new Pre-Flight School, Del Monte, Cal.

They are: Lieut. George N. Daniels, USNR, and Lieut. Theodore D. Ticken, USNR, instructors of nomenclature and recognition; Lieut. Vinton A. Hoyle, USNR, and Lieut. (jg) Moses Abrahams, USNR, instructors in mathematics and physics; and Lieut. (jg) Howard F. Haak, USNR, assistant trainer.

Detached tomorrow also for Del Monte is Lieut. John Abrams, USNR, instructor in essentials of naval service.

Coming Events

Jan. 30—Free movie at Village Theatre, "Johnny Eager" with Robert Taylor and Lana Turner. Feature starts at 1330, 1527, 1930 and 2127.

Jan. 30 — Basketball game, Cloudbusters vs. Norfolk Naval Air Station, Woollen Gym, starting at 1400.

Jan. 30 — President's Birthday Ball, Woollen Gym, starting at 2100.

Jan. 31—Free movie at Village Theatre, "War Against Mrs. Hadley" with Fay Bainter and Edward Arnold. Also, "The Spirit of Annapolis" (special 16 mm. film). Feature starts at 1327 and 1515.

Feb. 3 — Basketball game, Cloudbusters vs. Catawba, Woollen Gym, starting at 1600.

Feb. 5 — Basketball game, Cloudbusters vs. Penn State, Woollen Gym, starting at 1600.

BIRTHDAY BALL

(Continued from page one)

lege athlete,—has been arranged by Lieut. Frank Gillespie, USNR, who heads the committee in charge of the affair.

Uniform for the cadets will be optional—service blue or khaki. Tickets have been on sale in the Welfare Office all week for officers and crew, and may be picked up by cadets at the main entrance of Woollen gym this evening. Priced at $1.00, each ticket admits a couple, or stag, with the net proceeds going into the infantile paralysis fight.

Liberty for cadets will expire at 2400, and taps will be at 0030.

Hamilton Receives Commission of Ensign

Arthur T. Hamilton, Sk2c who was among the first to report for duty at this station early last April, received the commission of ensign last week. Ens. Hamilton has been ordered to Dartmouth College for his indoctrination.

OFFICERS WIN

(Continued from page three)

vania court star, was high man with 17 points, and it was his accurate shooting that kept the Pre-Flighters in the game. Dick Nickel paced the losers with 10 points.

Baskets by Lt. (jg) Buddy Hassett, Hashagen and Ensign Bob Freeman gave the Pre-Flighters an early 9 to 1 lead, but State slowly caught up, and the score was close the rest of the way.

WRESTLING

(Continued from page three)

seconds of the third round. 128-pound class—W. Richardson, Duke, pinned L. C. Babine in 2 minutes, 6 seconds of third round.

136-pound class—Acting Captain C. A. Dorn, Navy, pinned Smart in 2 minutes, 10 seconds of third round.

145-pound class—Sachel, Navy, decisioned Phelps, 5 to 2.

165-pound class—Landsberg, Navy, pinned Haines in 1 minute, 32 seconds of second round.

155-pound class—Smith, Duke